1999 Exodus

Upper Right:: Tigger was the star of this event! Everyone took a moment to hang out with him including Angela Carlino of O.A.S.I.S.

Lower Right: Jessica Maurice is all about campus involvement!

It's a Student Affair!

It's A Student Affair took place on September 1998 in the student union. It was an event that focused mainly on helping students become more familiar with the activities and services of RIC. Among the many organizations that attended were the Office of Residential Life and Housing, OASIS, and the Writing Center. Even Tigger was there!!

This event was a good chance to meet new and old faces while having a good time snacking on cotton candy provided by one of the clubs.

Health Services took some time during this event to share their knowledge of upcoming events to interested students. They also provided pamphlets and gave away a free balloon to a lucky raffle winner.

92 Pro FM Night

Upper Right: Students pack the Coffee Ground for Pro FM night.

Lower Right: Tiffany and her friends hang out at the Coffee Ground to listen to the music and try to win prizes.

*"92 Pro Fm night
was a chance to get away from the homework and enjoy time with my friends!"*

-Melissa Murphy

Left: Many students were excited to sign up to try to win prizes that were being offered by 92 Pro FM.

Lower Left: These students took time to hang out get away from the books.

This Fall, 92 Pro FM's very own Davy Morris visited RIC's Coffee Ground. Free prizes such as posters, and stickers were given away to everyone who attended. It was a night filled with great music!

RIC Homecoming 1998

October 2-3, 1998, the whole campus of RIC came together to have RIC's annual homecoming. RIC's quad was transformed into a fun day for all. RIC-TAC-TOE and children's day top our list of the best spots. It's a must attend for next season.

Top: Some of RIC's own "celebrities" took time out of RIC-TAC-TOE to start a new game.

Top Right: Parents of future RIC students take their children to Children's Day.

Lower Right: RIC's own alumni musicians came together to play for Homecoming.

"RIC Homecoming was a lot of fun. The kids who went to Kid's Day had a lot of fun during various activities. They especially like the face painting."

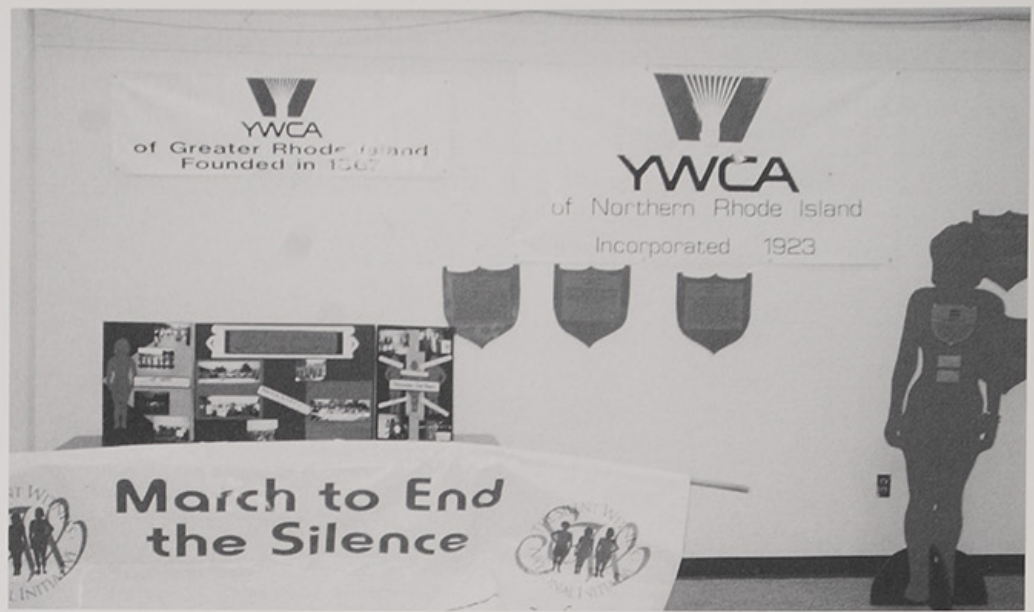

-Heather Stone

Come Back to RIC!

Upper Left: Many RIC students took some time from their hectic studying schedule to volunteer for the children's activities.

Left: A Softball Facility was opened in the new gym and was dedicated to Dayna A. Bazar during Homecoming ceremonies.

American Marketing Association's Trick or Treat

AMA

"It was a great way to meet and learn more about some of the organizations offered at RJC."

-Erica Hole

Right: Two RIC wrestlers take time to show their stuff.

Lower Right: "The Anchorman" gets the crowd all riled up.

Midnight Madness

"I don't think that anyone had a dry eye during the nation anthem dedicated to Jummy Quinn. It was a beautiful tribute."

- Paula Johnson

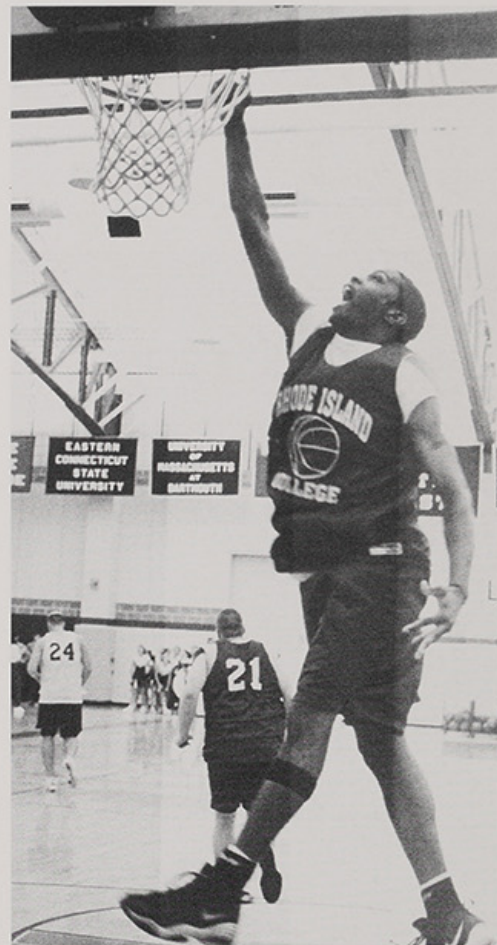

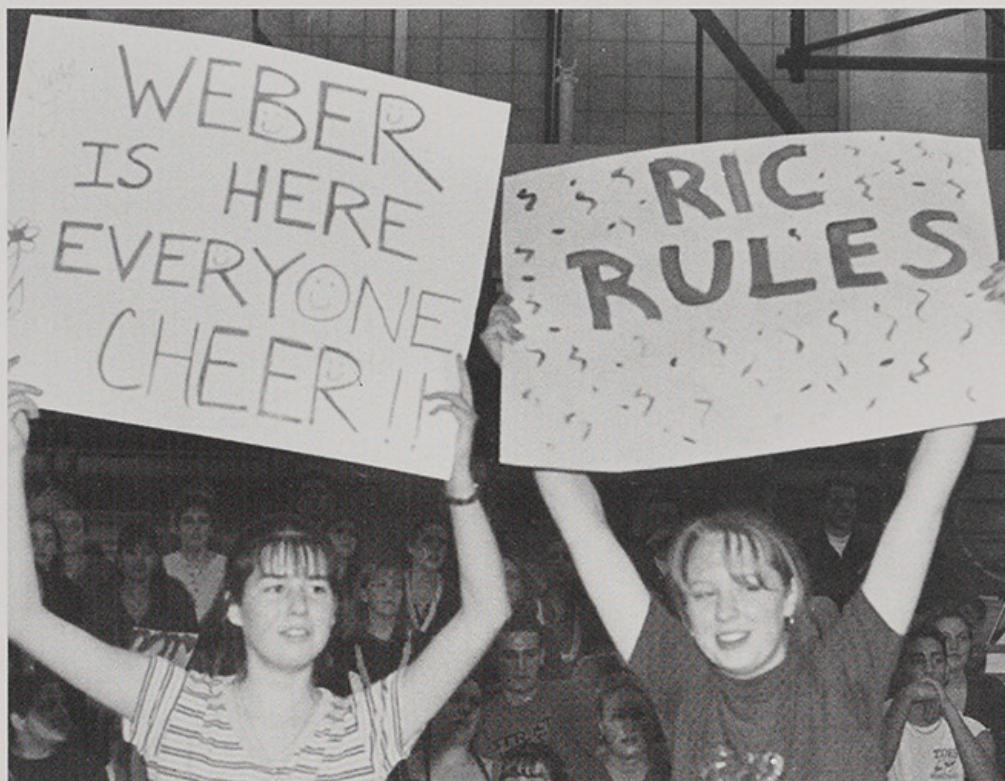

Left: The "Men (and Women) in Black", the coaches and staff of the winter athletic teams.

Lower Left: Two very enthusiastic Weber residents are proud to support their hall. We're sure that winning a chicken dinner from Wright's Farm had nothing to do with it!

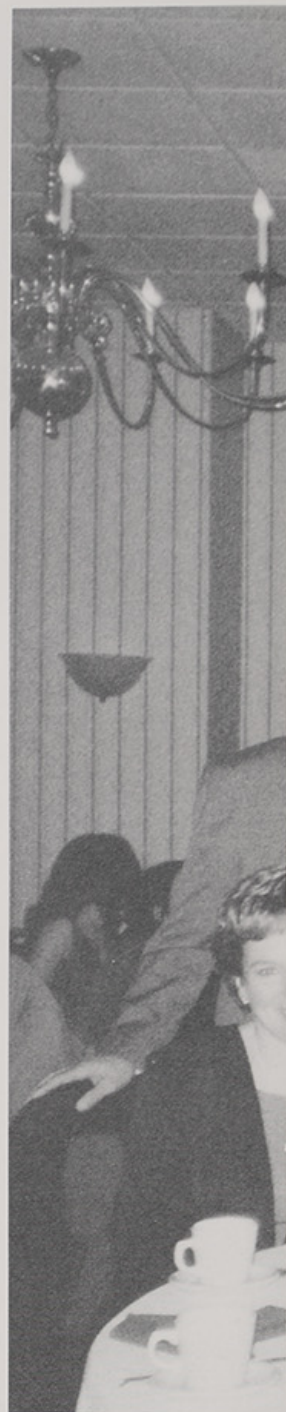

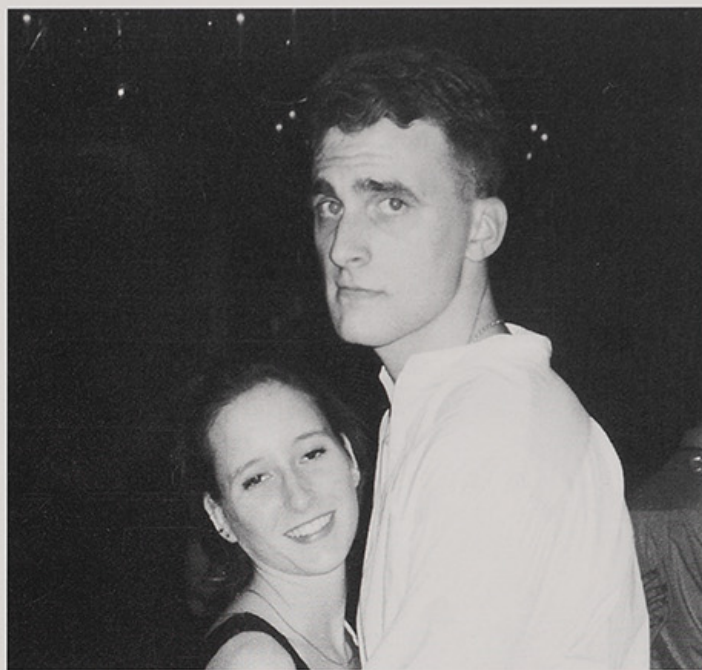

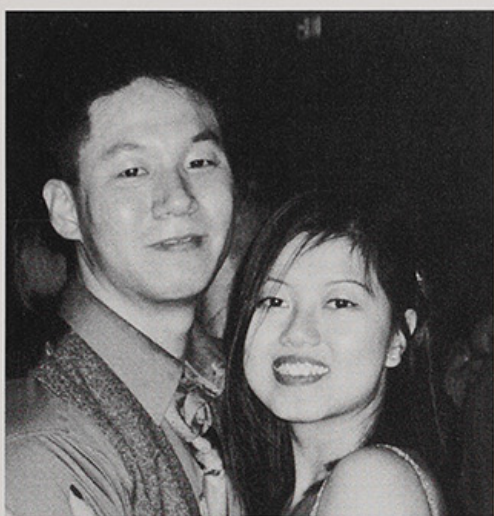

Below: This basketball player perfects his shot before the scrimmage.

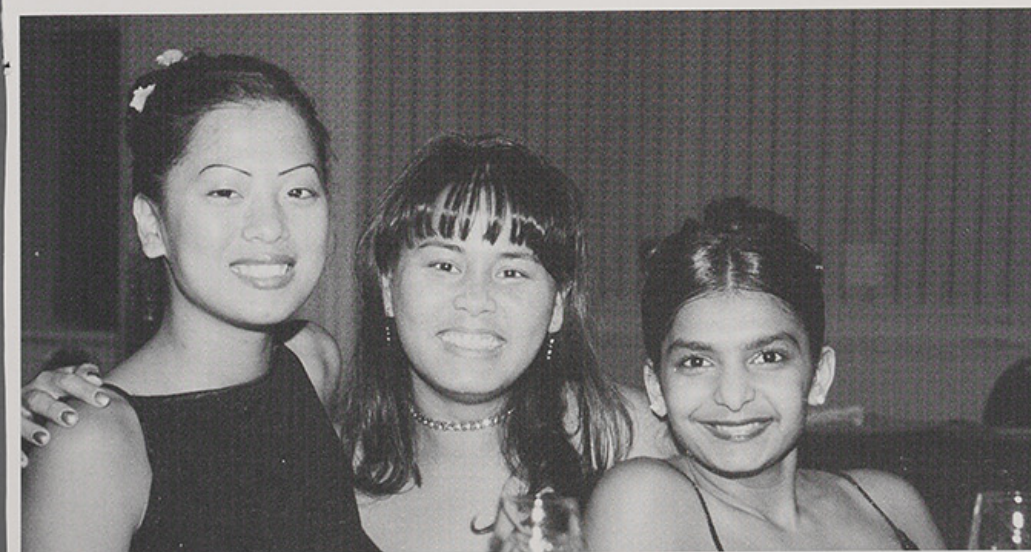

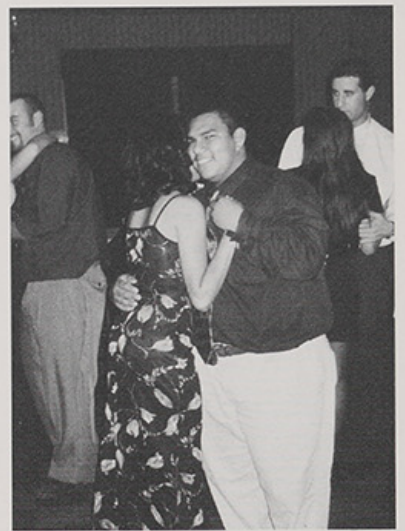

Midnight Madness was held on Wednesday, October 28, 1998, in the new athletic building. It was a fun night for all. Residents came dressed in their colors all proclaiming that they had the most spirit. The highlight of the evening was the beautiful tribute to Jimmy Quinn, the national anthem sung a capella by President John Nazarian.
