

1871

1892

---

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.

Graduating Exercises

OF THE

FORTY-FIRST CLASS,

NORMAL HALL,  BENEFIT STREET, PROVIDENCE,

Friday, June 24, 1892, at 10 A. M.

RECEPTION: 8-10:30 P. M.

PROGRAMME.

HYMN.

PRAYER.

MUSIC.

Note.—Brief essays will be read by the several members of the class, alphabetically.

ANNIE JANE BAKER, - - - - PASCOAG.
“The Rewards of a Teacher.”

MAUDE LOUISE BAKER, - - NORTH SMITHFIELD.
“State Certificates for Teachers.”

MARY LOUISE CAWLEY, - - EAST PROVIDENCE.
“Cardinal Manning.”

BERTHA ELIDA CHILD, - - - PROVIDENCE.
“An Account of the Stephen Olney Herbarium.”

SONG: - - - “The Sabbath Morn.”

ALICE MORSE FALES, - - - PROVIDENCE.
“Independent Thought.”

ELLEN UNDERWOOD HAMMOND, - - JAMESTOWN.
“Our National Failing.”

GRACE ELISABETH JOHNSON, - - PROVIDENCE.
“The Teaching of Current Events.”

ELEANOR MAY JOLLIE, - - - PAWTUCKET.
“The Pawtucket Evening Drawing School.”

SONG: - - - “Shadow Land.”

BERTHA REMINGTON KENT, - - - PHENIX.
“Summer Schools.”

IDA ELIZABETH MCGUNIGLE, - - PROVIDENCE.
“Algebra and Geometry for the Grammar Schools.”

PROGRAMME,

---

FANNIE OLNEY, - - - - - CHEPACHET.
"The Indians."

EDA MAY ROUND, - - - - - PROVIDENCE.
"The Power of Music."

SONG: - "Oft in the Pathway of Life."

EDITH MAY SHORT, - - - - - EAST PROVIDENCE.
"The Study of Botany."

BERTHA NORTHUP SMITH, - - - - - JOHNSTON.
"The Teacher and Politics."

MARY DUNHAM THORNTON, - - - - - GREENVILLE.
"Opportunities."

LOUISE ADELINE VAN HORNE, - - - - - NEWPORT.
"National Ideals,"

SONG: - - - - - "Charity."

PRINCIPAL'S ADDRESS.

PRESENTATION OF DIPLOMAS,

By His Excellency the Governor, HON. D. RUSSELL BROWN.

---

PRESENTATION OF CERTIFICATES,

To Students elected to the Providence Training School for Teachers.

MINNIE LOUISE GALLAGHER,	ANNA VERONICA RICE,
MARY HENRIETTA GAYNOR,	MARION WIGGIN,
MARY AGNES MCARDLE,	EDITH FIELD WILCOX.

---

CLASS ODE.

BENEDICTION.

—→ CLASS ODE. ←—

---

MOTTO: —“Let us be known by our deeds.”

---

The years we've passed together
Have swiftly sped away ;
And now as we assemble
The last farewell to say.
We think of days of pleasure,
Yet there were some of care,
But trials only gave us
New strength our tasks to bear.

As time still bears us onward,
Life's lessons, hard, to learn,
To these dear halls of learning
Our memory oft will turn,
May true instruction given
And love and patience shown,
Bear precious fruit hereafter ;
For —“ By our deeds we're known.”

Our life-work is before us,
And, as years come and go,
May we all seek the highest,
The best earth can bestow.
Then let us still press onward,
All fears and doubts dispel.
And trust to Him the future
“ Who doeth all things well.”

—Words by Mary Dunham Thornton.