LESLIE YALE GUTTERMAN

Doctor of Humanities

Since 1970, Leslie Yale Gutterman has served as Rabbi of Temple Beth-El in Providence. Now in his fifth decade of leadership, Rabbi Gutterman continues to be at the forefront of public service, building coalitions that have helped immeasurably to improve the fabric of our community. Much of his advocacy has been in areas that correspond with some of the leading disciplines at Rhode Island College, including health care, social work, education, and the arts.

In the area of health care, he has served as a Trustee of Butler Hospital and on the board of Miriam Hospital, where he also served on the Ethics Committee. His service also includes corporation member of Rhode Island Hospital and Bradley Hospital; board member for the Providence Region, Greater RI Chapter of the American Red Cross; Honorary Trustee of the Visiting Nurses Association; founding member (now Honorary Member) of Hospice Care, Inc.; executive board of the Rhode Island Anti-Drug Coalition; and board membership of The Samaritans, Planned Parenthood, and Interfaith Health Care Ministries.

In the realm of social services, anti-violence, and the promotion of community, he has served on the Rhode Island Department of Health's Advisory Committee for the Prevention of Violence Against Women; the Providence Human Relations Commission; National Conference of Christians and Jews; Human Services Advisory Committee for Rhode Island; Big Brothers of R.I. Advisory Board; and the Martin Luther King, Jr. State Holiday Commission.

Providing leadership in education, the arts, and the humanities, he has chaired the Rhode Island Committee for the Humanities; served as a board member of the Children's Museum of Rhode Island and of the Providence Athenaeum; as a member of the Rhode Island Telecommunications Authority; Trustee Emeritus of Trinity Repertory Theatre; and has also chaired the Blue Ribbon Commission of Rhode Island State Council for the Arts to evaluate future policies concerning support of state's cultural institutions.

A prolific author, he has also contributed editorial pieces to the Providence Journal for 20 years, as well as numerous essays for publication elsewhere.

Rabbi Gutterman holds an M.A. in Hebrew Letters from Hebrew Union College, and a B.A. from the University of Michigan. He holds six honorary doctorates and earlier this month was inducted into the Rhode Island Heritage Hall of Fame.

JENNIFER E. DUFFY

Doctor of Social Sciences

Rhode Island-born, nationally respected political analyst, Jennifer Duffy is Senior Editor for The Cook Political Report, where she is responsible for U.S. Senate and state gubernatorial analyses.

In an age of partisan rancor that extends to political news reporting, Jennifer Duffy is exceptional in her balanced, research-based perspective. Publisher and founder Charlie Cook, in partnership with Jennifer Duffy and David Wasserman, have built what Bob Schieffer, host of Face the Nation on CBS News, called “the bible of the political community.” Likewise, The New York Times characterized The Cook Political Report as a publication “that both parties regard as authoritative”.

Ms. Duffy has more than 25 years of experience in campaign politics, the last 22 of which have focused on non-partisan political analysis. In 1985, she served as Press Secretary for the National Republican Senatorial Committee, joining The Cook Political Report in 1988 as its first Assistant Editor. While continuing to work as contributing editor to the Report, she also was a senior account executive with Hill and Knowlton Public Affairs Worldwide, where she developed and implemented strategic public affairs programs for a diverse group of clients. In 1992, she joined the lobbying firm of Cassidy & Associates, devising legislative strategies for clients, specializing in appropriations and health care.

In 1995, Ms. Duffy rejoined Cook & Company full-time. In addition to her responsibilities for the Report, she contributes to National Journal magazine. She also has served as an analyst for NBC News on election nights in every presidential year since 1996. Ms. Duffy has been quoted in innumerable national and regional publications and has regularly appeared on ABC, NBC, CBS, CNN, PBS’s The News Hour with Jim Lehrer, and C-SPAN’s Washington Journal.

In October 2009, Jennifer Duffy delivered the keynote address at the American Democracy Project’s “Congress to Campus” symposium at Rhode Island College. She also participated in the panel discussion, “Then and Now: Congress, Bipartisanship, and Governing,” along with former members of the U.S. Congress Barry M. Goldwater Jr. (R-CA, 1969-83), and Beverly Byron (D-MD, 1979-93), as well as Professor Wendy Schiller of Brown University.

Ms. Duffy received a Bachelor of Arts degree in American Government from Georgetown University in 1985.

MARGARET J. KENNEY

Doctor of Pedagogy

Margaret J. “Peg” Kenney has been involved in mathematics education throughout her professional life and is considered a pioneer and role model for women in the discipline of mathematics and mathematics education. As Professor of Mathematics at Boston College, she works with mathematics and computer science majors, and particularly those students who show an interest in becoming teachers.

Earning her Ph.D. in mathematics at a time when relatively few women were at such an advanced academic level in that field, she served as Mathematics Professor and Assistant to the Director of the Mathematics Institute of Boston College for over 45 years. She also served as Director of a National Science Foundation Project in the 1990s linking Boston College with five other universities across the United States to prepare secondary teachers to initiate change in mathematics education.

Dr. Kenney has contributed as author and consultant for such publishers as the William Sadlier Company, Science Research Associates, Creative Publications, Dale Seymour Publications, and Glencoe Publishing Company.

Professor Kenney has given numerous presentations on mathematics in Rhode Island. She has spoken at various meetings of the Rhode Island Mathematics Teachers Association (RIMTA) and at various schools through her work with Science Research Associates (SRA).

In 2008, Dr. Kenney visited Rhode Island College to give the Arthur Smith lecture, “Adventures with Numbers: A Tribute to Art Smith.” Her affection for Rhode Island College and esteem for members of the college’s mathematics faculty has moved her to donate extensively to Adams Library and to the Mathematics/Computer Science Department from the vast collection of holdings of the Boston College Mathematics Institute.

Dr. Kenney is a past president of the Association of Teachers of Mathematics in Massachusetts and in New England. She has long been active in the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, having served on its Board of Directors, Publications Committee, Discrete Mathematics Task Force, and the Mathematics Education Trust.

The 2001 recipient of the Glenn Gilbert National Leadership Award in Mathematics Education, she has also been inducted into the Massachusetts Hall of Fame for Mathematics Educators as a founding member.

Professor Kenney holds a Ph.D. in Mathematics from Boston University, as well as M.S. and B.S. degrees in Mathematics from Boston College.

REGINA A. PARTRIDGE

Doctor of Fine Arts

Regina Partridge is a Rhode Island artist who has been exhibiting her paintings, drawings, and prints since 1988. A double alumna of Rhode Island College, Ms. Partridge received her Bachelor of Education degree in 1962 and her Master of Education degree in 1985. Beginning her professional career as an art educator, she taught for several years in public elementary schools and was the art teacher at the Solomon Schechter School for four years.

As a professional artist, she is a member of the Providence Art Club, the Monotype Guild of New England, Art League RI, the Los Angeles Printmaking Society, and the Newport Art Museum. She is also affiliated with the Rhode Island School of Design Museum and Gallery Z in Rhode Island, and beyond the state's borders, with the National Museum of Women in the Arts (Washington, DC), Congress Street Gallery (Portsmouth, NH), and the Pastel Society of America (New York, NY).

A strong advocate for the arts in Rhode Island, she is a member of the Rhode Island State Council on the Arts and a board member of the Pawtucket Arts Collaborative.

Partridge's work has been accepted into juried art shows throughout southern New England, receiving awards and recognitions from exhibitions held at such venues as the Providence Art Club, Green River Gallery, and Spring Bull Gallery. She is also the recipient of the Grumbacher Gold Medal Award and the Robert Cummings Purchase Award, given at Women and Infants Hospital of Rhode Island. Her art is a part of many private and corporate collections, including banks, hospitals, restaurants, and business offices.

Ms. Partridge is currently represented by the Bert Gallery and Gallery Z in Providence, Gallery 297 in Bristol, and the Vaughn Gallery of Portsmouth, NH.

In 1999, she and Rhode Island artist Elizabeth Goddard co-founded Studio Goddard Partridge, a printmaking studio and gallery located in the historic Arts District of Pawtucket, Rhode Island. Their vision was to create an environmentally sensitive studio in which to work and to exhibit their work, while at the same time providing a production and exhibition venue for other artists. The studio is housed in a restored 19th century mill building that was once part of the Rhode Island Cardboard Company.

DANNY SMITH

Doctor of Letters

A 1981 graduate of Rhode Island College, Danny Smith has earned seven prime-time Emmy Award nominations, one Grammy nomination, and a nomination from the British Academy of Film and Television Arts (BAFTA) for his work as an executive producer, scriptwriter, voice actor, and songwriter for Fox Television's animated series, "Family Guy," which is now in its tenth season.

However successful he has been with the long-running hit show, which has developed a worldwide cult following, Smith has many other credits as a comedy writer for prime-time network series. He has been a producer or writer for such programs as "Head of the Class" (1990-91), "Nurses" (1991-94), "3rd Rock from the Sun (2001)", and "Yes, Dear" (2002-03).

A graduate of Smithfield High School, Smith enrolled at Rhode Island College with a major in Studio Art and a double minor in Theatre and English. As a student, he performed in numerous RIC Theatre productions and was a regular contributor to The Anchor. After graduating, Smith became host of the Providence edition of PM Magazine on Channel 10, succeeding current Today Show host Matt Lauer. He hosted the program for two years before leaving to pursue a writing career in Hollywood.

From his first writing credit in 1990, for the program "Head of the Class," through the present, Smith has been a prolific and versatile writer and producer, with more than 260 credits to his name.

Smith has been with the program "Family Guy" since its inception. The program was first aired in January 1999, following the Fox broadcast of the Super Bowl. The series, created by RISD graduate Seth McFarlane, is set in Quahog, a fictional town in Rhode Island that some claim was loosely modeled after Cranston. There are numerous Rhode Island references and visuals throughout the series, so many, in fact, that the Blackstone Valley Tourism Council has created a self-guided "Family Guy" location tour map. Ironically, Smith never met McFarlane when both were in Rhode Island; they began their collaboration in California when, during their initial meeting, McFarlane recognized Smith's Rhode Island accent. As the only Rhode Islander on the writing staff, Smith's gifts of observational humor have found an ideal home in Hollywood.

THE RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE SEAL

The official Rhode Island College seal (adopted in 1960) incorporates the anchor, a symbol of hope and of the state of Rhode Island, with the founding of the institution in 1854. The seal was designed by Edith C. Becker, professor emerita of art, who adapted the central flame symbol from the Holbrook Murals in the foyer of Roberts Hall. The flame is used in the murals to depict the energy that has, over the ages, supported the development of all living things and has led civilization to its highest intellectual achievements. In like manner, the flame in the Rhode Island College seal stands for the life of the body and the life of the mind, symbolizing the human and intellectual goals and achievements of Rhode Island College.

THE DEL SESTO MACE

At the 1959 commencement exercises, the first held on the present Mount Pleasant campus, Governor Christopher Del Sesto presented to Rhode Island College a bronze replica of the statue of the Independent Man so that the college, which since 1898 had been located near the State House, might continue its tradition of holding commencements and other academic convocations in the presence of the Independent Man. The Del Sesto Mace, designed by the noted Rhode Island sculptor Aristide Cianfarani and crafted by the Gorham Company, has been in use since 1962 in all academic processions as a symbol of tradition and authority, as well as commitment to the search for truth, knowledge, beauty, values, and learning.

THE WILLARD MEDALLION

The Willard Medallion is a symbol of the office of the president and is worn at official and ceremonial functions. The medallion is appended to a presidential chain that bears the names of the chief executive officers who have led Rhode Island College since 1973. The Rhode Island College Alumni Association commissioned silversmith Curtis K. LaFollette, then a professor of art at the college, to design the medallion and chain in commemoration of the inauguration of Charles Bormero Willard as the first alumnus to be named president of Rhode Island College.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students used them to keep warm in medieval castles and halls of learning. This formal apparel now symbolizes scholarly achievement.

Baccalaureate gowns have a long, pleated front with shirring across the shoulders and back. The gowns are primarily distinguished by flowing sleeves, pointed at the fingertip, and may be worn either open or closed.

The master's gown is worn open, and the sleeve is cut so that the forearm comes through a slit just above the elbow. The doctor's gown has rounded sleeves and velvet panels around the neck and down the front of the gown, as well as three velvet bars on the sleeves. In recent years American universities have followed the custom of European institutions of selecting doctoral gowns in the color of the university. Mortar boards or caps worn with baccalaureate and master's gowns generally have black tassels. The tassel of the doctoral cap is usually made of gold bullion.

The hood gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. Its silk lining bears the colors of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is bordered with velvet of a prescribed width and color to indicate the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

COLLEGE COLORS

Rhode Island College's colors are gold and white, taken from the Rhode Island state flag. In 1986 burgundy was added as an accent color.
