MORRIS NATHANSON

Doctor of Humanities

Morris Nathanson is founder and president of the internationally-acclaimed, Rhode Island-based Morris Nathanson Design. His clients have included the Disney Company, Royal Caribbean International cruise lines, and major restaurants and music clubs such as the B.B. King Theatre in Times Square and other venues in the Caribbean, Asia, the Middle East, Europe, and throughout the United States.

Nathanson is an accomplished professional artist whose work has been exhibited at the Providence Art Club and other venues. A leading historic preservationist, he served on the Providence Historic Commission. Early in his career he oversaw the conversion of the Majestic Theatre into the current home of the Trinity Repertory Company.

Nathanson helped create the Pawtucket Foundation, which has been instrumental in establishing Pawtucket as an emerging center for the arts. He initiated the creative redevelopment of the abandoned Rhode Island Cardboard Mill into an artist-friendly working and living space.

A charter member of the Pawtucket Arts Council, his leadership in the restoration of the Armory in Pawtucket has helped to create a home for the Gamm Theatre and the Walsh School for the Performing and Visual Arts. He is a member of the American Society of Interior Designers and the American Planning Institute.

Nathanson is an inductee of the Pawtucket Hall of Fame and a recipient of the Pawtucket Foundation's Heritage Award. He holds a B.F.A. from the University of Miami and has pursued graduate studies at the New School of Social Research in New York City.

JOHN NAZARIAN

Doctor of Public Service

John Nazarian is President Emeritus of Rhode Island College, an institution he attended as an undergraduate and subsequently served as a faculty member and administrator for 54 years, including the last 18 as its president before his retirement in 2008.

A lifelong resident of Pawtucket, R.I., he holds a Ph.D. from New York University, an M.A. from the University of Illinois, an A.M. from Brown University, and a B.Ed. from the Rhode Island College of Education. As president of RIC, he led the establishment of two new schools (Management and Nursing); expanded and improved the campus; initiated new scholarship programs; developed new academic programs; and chaired the college's first-ever capital campaign.

Beyond his work at RIC, he has served in leadership roles with numerous community-based organizations. These include The Providence Foundation, WaterFire Providence, the Rhode Island Council on Economic Education, TIDES Family Services, the Rhode Island Anti-Drug Coalition, the Salvation Army, the Boys and Girls Club of Pawtucket, Memorial Hospital of Rhode Island, the National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ), Dorcas Place, and the Sargent Rehabilitation Center, among others.

Dr. Nazarian is a past recipient of two of the state's most prestigious public service awards: the Robert M. Goodrich Distinguished Public Service Award given by the Rhode Island Public Expenditure Council, and the John O. Stitely Distinguished Public Service Award given by the Rhode Island Chapter of the American Society of Public Administration.

ANNE G. MURPHY

Doctor of Humanities

Anne G. Murphy is President of Linkages, a Washington, D.C. based consulting firm specializing in public policy and the arts and humanities. She currently serves as Co-Chair of the Digital Promise Project, which aims to establish a major national trust fund to help transform education, training, and lifelong learning to meet the needs of the nation's new knowledge-based economy.

Previous clients have included OVATION, a cable network dedicated to the arts, the National Cultural Alliance, and other arts and humanities organizations. Ms. Murphy was Director of the American Arts Alliance from 1979-1991 and has also held senior positions at the Public Broadcasting Service and the National Endowment for the Arts.

She has served on the Board of Overseers for the Corcoran Museum of Art and, early in her career, worked with R.I. Congressmen John E. Fogarty and Robert O. Tiernan on legislation establishing the National Endowment for the Arts and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

A member of the RIC 2009 Golden Anniversary Class, Ms. Murphy holds a B.Ed. from the Rhode Island College of Education (1959) and has pursued graduate studies at the University of Connecticut. She is part of a three-generation family to matriculate at RIC and was recognized by her alma mater in 1984 with the Charles B. Willard Achievement Award.

MARK STEVEN WEINER SR.

Doctor of Public Service

A lifelong Rhode Islander, Mark S. Weiner, Sr. is a business executive, philanthropist, and political activist. He is founder and president of Financial Innovations, Inc., located in Cranston, RI, one of the nation's largest political mass marketing firms, and co-founder of Crimzon Rose Accessories, one of the nation's largest jewelry manufacturing companies.

In his youth, he attended the Henry Barnard School, the demonstration school operated by Rhode Island College, and later graduated from LaSalle Academy and from Harvard University, where he earned a B.A.

Mr. Weiner has an extensive record of public service, including membership on the Rhode Island Convention Center Authority and the Rhode Island Board of Governors for Higher Education. He also served as Treasurer of the Providence Civic Center Authority and as Chair of the Providence Zoning Board of Review.

His political involvement has included service as Chair of the Rhode Island Democratic Party as well as national leadership capacities within the presidential campaigns of Jimmy Carter, Walter Mondale, Michael Dukakis, Bill Clinton, John Kerry, and Hillary Rodham Clinton.

His philanthropic efforts on both the state and national level have helped support Hands Across America, the Rhode Island Diabetes Association, the Special Olympics, the Rhode Island Heart Fund, Amos House, St. Jude's Children's Hospital, Big Brothers of Rhode Island, the Providence Center, and the Jackie Robinson Foundation, among others. He is a national advocate for Spinal Muscular Atrophy research, and an active supporter of the President Clinton Global Initiative and the Clinton Foundation.

THE RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE SEAL

The official Rhode Island College seal (adopted in 1960) incorporates the anchor, a symbol of hope and of the state of Rhode Island, with the founding of the institution in 1854. The seal was designed by Edith C. Becker, professor emerita of art, who adapted the central flame symbol from the Holbrook Murals in the foyer of Roberts Hall. The flame is used in the murals to depict the energy that has, over the ages, supported the development of all living things and has led civilization to its highest intellectual achievements. In like manner, the flame in the Rhode Island College seal stands for the life of the body and the life of the mind, symbolizing the human and intellectual goals and achievements of Rhode Island College.

THE DEL SESTO MACE

At the 1959 commencement exercises, the first held on the present Mount Pleasant campus, Governor Christopher Del Sesto presented to Rhode Island College a bronze replica of the statue of the Independent Man so that the college, which since 1898 had been located near the State House, might continue its tradition of holding commencements and other academic convocations in the presence of the Independent Man. The Del Sesto Mace, designed by the noted Rhode Island sculptor Aristide Cianfarani and crafted by the Gorham Company, has been in use since 1962 in all academic processions as a symbol of tradition and authority, as well as commitment to the search for truth, knowledge, beauty, values, and learning.

THE WILLARD MEDALLION

The Willard Medallion is a symbol of the office of the president and is worn at official and ceremonial functions. The medallion is appended to a presidential chain that bears the names of the chief executive officers who have led Rhode Island College since 1973. The Rhode Island College Alumni Association commissioned silversmith Curtis K. LaFollette, then a professor of art at the college, to design the medallion and chain in commemoration of the inauguration of Charles Borromeo Willard as the first alumnus to be named president of Rhode Island College.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students used them to keep warm in medieval castles and halls of learning. This formal apparel now symbolizes scholarly achievement.

Baccalaureate gowns have a long, pleated front with shirring across the shoulders and back. The gowns are primarily distinguished by flowing sleeves, pointed at the fingertip, and may be worn either open or closed.

The master's gown is worn open, and the sleeve is cut so that the forearm comes through a slit just above the elbow. The doctor's gown has rounded sleeves and velvet panels around the neck and down the front of the gown, as well as three velvet bars on the sleeves. In recent years American universities have followed the custom of European institutions of selecting doctoral gowns in the color of the university. Mortar boards or caps worn with baccalaureate and master's gowns generally have black tassels. The tassel of the doctoral cap is usually made of gold bullion.

The hood gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. Its silk lining bears the colors of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is bordered with velvet of a prescribed width and color to indicate the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

COLLEGE COLORS

Rhode Island College's colors are gold and white, taken from the Rhode Island state flag. In 1986 burgundy was added as an accent color.
