The Board of Directors of the International Institute and the Officers and Committee Members for the International Ball cordially invite you to attend the Ball to be held on Friday, April 28, 1961, at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel.

The theme of the Ball will be "a salute to the origins of our culture." To highlight this aspect, a pageant will be presented in which several groups will be represented, dressed in the costumes of various countries. As you know, the purpose of the International Institute is to create in the community an understanding of the needs of the "newcomer" and, through understanding and appreciation of each others' cultures, traditions, and goals, to encourage them to intelligently participate in the social, civic, cultural, educational, economic, and spiritual life of our community, state, and nation. We hope that you will accept our invitation and by your participation show your interest in the work of the Institute.

The Ball will be held between 9 p.m. and 1 a.m., and we are particularly desirous that you join in the Grand March at 10:30. The committee would appreciate having your acceptance by April 24th.

Cordially yours,

H. Clinton Owen, Jr.
