The Republican "Order."

The political season in Rhode Island opened yesterday with a gathering of Republicans at Crescent Park and with the announcement of the Democratic State Central Committee that the party convention to nominate candidates will be held on October 11.

At the Republican pow-wow Governor Pothier stressed what will probably be the party's battlecry in the fall. "We have re-established order," said the Governor, "and this alone deserves the commendation of every good citizen." Rhode Island has been saved from Red ruin and to-day "can have its freedom of action in improving and making laws."

Everybody with sense appreciates, of course, that this is sheer poppycock. The re-establishment of "order" was merely the return of the Republican party to power in the State. After the disgraceful scenes attending upon the election of a judge, after the shameful incidents of the stolen bills, after the greedy grabbing for jobs, favors and concessions by the politicians and the privileged bund, after the failure to pass one single bit of popular legislation, after the most callous betrayal of party promises in the history of the State, after the record of Republican rule for the past two years, have the Republican orators the frightful crust to go on the public platform this fall and tell the people of the State that the party has re-established "order"? Has a party which is incapable of maintaining order within its own organization, split and rent by factional bitterness, the right to pride itself upon the re-establishment of "order"?

When the Hearst papers were vigorously rapping Wilson in a national campaign, forcing him on the defensive, the late leader of Tammany, Charles F. Murphy, appeared at national headquarters one day and said: "When they've got the goods on you, don't try to defend yourself; make a big noise about something else."

The Republicans intend to follow the same political strategy. This time the Democrats have the goods on them. A comparison of the Republican promises and the failure to fulfill shows that if the Republicans did re-establish "order" they did not set up a reign of honesty and faithfulness.

The "order" that the Republican party did re-establish was the Order of the clique which has kept Rhode Island the most politically unprogressive State in the Union.

Let the Democrats go to it. Let them nominate men who by their record and by their connections are not affiliated with the "order" the Republicans have re-established. Then let them keep the Republicans to the issues which have not changed in the last two years. 11928

A Negative Party

The Republican party in Rhode Island is a negative party, that is, it has no affirmative, forward and progressive policies, the life blood of political organisms, and maintains its existence upon a dogmatic and stubborn insistence that "What is, is good," thus defying the basic law of change arrived at centuries ago by a Greek philosopher. It is negative in its defence of "outmoded and outworn political machinery of government. It is negative in that it wants to stand still, when standing still means stultification and dry rot. It is negative in the fact that for many years it has not offered to the people of Rhode Island one forward or progressive policy, one measure that would bring the government of the State in harmony with enlightened political thought, one political idea sizable enough to swim with the flood of modern political conceptions that are necessary to a progressive nation.

Look back for some years and try to recall one piece of legislation, outside the customary routine work, that has been fathered, developed and consummated by the Republican leaders in Rhode Island which, if it can be found, has not been exacted unwillingly, veritably wrung from them. The Republican party is more an employment bureau to meet the wants of the faithful than an intelligent and meaningful political party. Of course the privilege of awarding jobs to the faithful is a recognized incidental of a controlling political party, but it is by no means the whole. A political party should furnish clear-cut and definite ideas and policies and strive at all times to make those ideas and policies realizable. When it merely digs itself in and says, "We are here; it was good enough for our fathers; it is good enough for us," then that political party is digging its own grave.

The Republican leaders should see that a mule-like policy of remaining fixed is a natural characteristic of the mule, but as yet few have come forward to champion the mentality of the mule for the position he takes. The Republican leaders, if they are wise, should see that a political party must have some policy, must have some progressive ideas if it wants to exist. The Republican party looks to the past and it stands upon the past when the whole urge of nature and of our being looks to the future, to a new adjustment to a world constantly in flux. The Republican party can not always sit upon the grave of the past. It can not remain forever the lackeys to political thought residing in that grave. It must be alive, it must make itself an affirmative party, it must champion something that lives and moves and acts. It must, quite simply, inject some political sap into its organism if it expects the tree to continue to live. 11928

DI CIANTIS IS GUEST AT NATICK FETE

Fourth Assistant Attorney General Honored at Dinner by Friends

Warren Office, Phone
The News-Tribune, Warren
27 Avenue A. 1061

Fourth Assistant Attorney General Michael DiCiantis of Riverpoint was showered with compliments and presented a handsome brief case at a dinner given in his honor at Natick last evening. The affair, arranged by a committee of the Sons of Italy, was held in the basement of the Church of the Sacred Heart, and attended by about 150 members of the lodge and friends of Judge DiCiantis from all parts of the Valley.

After five courses of an eight-course Italian dinner had been disposed of to the accompaniment of music by the Melodiste Orchestra, interspersed with vocal solos by Miss Theresa Della Cioppa, Ralph Cipolla, chairman of the committee, made a brief address in English and Italian, and closed by presenting Town Solicitor James W. Leighton of West Warwick as the toastmaster.

Lauding Judge DiCiantis as a friend and fellow member of the bar, Mr. Leighton next called on Judge A. A. Capotosto of the Superior Court as the first of the guests. Judge Capotosto began by saying that while he found himself surrounded by Democrats, he felt himself among friends. He said he had come to pay his tribute to the young man who had been honored in the Valley by Americans of Italian extraction, a young man who reflects the culture of the Italian race. He told Judge DiCiantis that he had been elevated to a position in which he can "make or break himself, but expressed his confidence that he will make good and do honor to his race, his father, his religious mentor and those who have been his professional and political sponsors. In conclusion he said that "the day of the Italian immigrant as a transitory element is gone. We are here to stay and we are going to stay here."

Lieut. Gov. Robert E. Quinn said he was the first to encourage Judge DiCiantis to take up the study of the law, how the boy student, then a mill worker, had pursued his studies, which required many sacrifices, and had made good.

The Rev. F. A. Tirrocchi, M. S. C., pastor of the Sacred Heart Church, praised him as a boy and man, as a Catholic and citizen and said he wished that Judge DiCiantis may go higher and higher and reflect credit on his race, especially in the Valley.

Dr. Giovanni Senerchia of Natick paid his tribute in Italian. Hon. A. A. Archambault, who claimed some small share in helping the new assistant attorney general on his legal career, complimented his father, in Italian, on having reared such a son. Secretary of State Louis W. Cappelli and Attorney General J. P. Hartigan followed with verbal tributes, the latter saying that "the encomiums I have heard given him make me feel that I have made no mistake in the choice of my assistant."

Rep. Horace L. Petrarca followed his praise of the guest of honor by contrasting the position of the Italians in the community with that of the pioneers, of whom his father was one "who had to pay $50 to the overseer to get a job in the mill and had to give the overseers much beer and wine and spaghetti suppers and divide their salaries with the bosses in order to keep their jobs."

After Rep. Vincenzo Senerchia, Republican assemblyman from Warwick had added his meed of praise, Col. P. H. Quinn was called on and said he had found Judge DiCiantis "honest, clean and willing to work, qualities that will stand him in good stead," and addressing the elder DiCiantis said that there is no more dutiful, obedient and loyal son than Mike DiCiantis. He closed by presenting the brief case.

The new assistant attorney general was the last speaker. After modestly disclaiming much of what was said in his praise, promising to make good and thanking his friends for their loyalty and encouragement, a very pleasant occasion came to an end shortly after 11 o'clock.

DEMOCRATS GAIN IN WEST WARWICK

[Nov. 5, 1930]

Archambault Wins Assembly Seat as Party Sweeps Every Precinct.

The Democratic landslide in West Warwick yesterday not only gave substantial pluralities to Gerry, Green and all candidates for the general State offices and continued the Democratic administration control of town affairs but one additional Assembly seat in the election of Donat Archambault as Representative from the Third District and captured the offices of Moderator and Clerk in the first precinct of Representative District Three.

The Democratic organization succeeded in carrying every precinct in the town for the first time since 1922, being successful by a comfortable margin in the last Republican stronghold—Crompton-Centreville.

The complete tabulation of the returns in the town result was delayed for nearly two hours by the dilatory tactics of Moderator Thomas J. Durand and the clerk and supervisors of precinct 2 of Representative District Three, who not only declared a recess of half an hour when the polls closed at 5 o'clock, but who later in the evening appeared to have a sort of field day.

The delay in making public the returns in this precinct was all the more noticeable because of the fact that the moderator permitted the police officials on duty at the polling place to assist in sorting and counting the ballots.

Senator Quinn Re-elected

Robert E. Quinn was re-elected Senator by a plurality of 974, which is 123 larger than that given him two years ago.

In the first district, Representative Petracca was unopposed. In the second district, Representative William E. Reddy was re-elected by a margin of 547, which is smaller by 15 than the plurality given him in 1928.

In the third district Donat Archambault was elected by a plurality of 193 over Representative Orin C. Lyons, who two years ago defeated Mr. Archambault by six votes.

West Warwick gave Gerry a margin of 985 over Senator Metcalf.

In 1928 Gerry's plurality over Hebert was 448.

Arthur L. Conaty was given a plurality over Congressman Aldrich of 975.

Two years ago Sumner Mowry led Congressman Aldrich by 510 votes.

Green Polls 3417

Theodore Francis Green polled 3417 votes to 2451 for Case, his plurality being 966, which is larger by one than the plurality given in 1928 to Alberic A. Archambault.

In the town election Council President Alfred E. Richard polled the largest vote, his total of 3541 giving him a plurality of 1146 over Aime Grenier.

The largest plurality was given Alberic Lemol, who defeated Mr. Nunes for sewer commissioner by 1160.

A DISGUSTING SPEECH

Nov. 3, 1930

Judge Michael DeCiantis of West Warwick, over radio station WJAR, Providence, Saturday night, and at the Odeon, Arctic, last night, delivered an address for the Democratic party which was replete with untruths about United States Senator Felix Hebert. Judge DeCiantis is young. He is known to but a few people and his greatest asset is that he is associated with the well known law firm of Quinn, Kernan & Quinn of Providence and West Warwick. United States Senator Felix Hebert is known from one end of the country to the other and in Canada, as one of the greatest authorities on insurance law in North America. He has made an enviable name for himself during his first term in the United States Senate at Washington and is recognized as a very able man not only by citizens of his own party but by Democrats as well.

Judge DeCiantis' speech was entirely uncalled for and from our personal knowledge some of the leaders of his own Democratic party are disgusted with it. People admire a man who will play the game of politics squarely. Maybe Judge DeCiantis will learn that some day.

Here is what Judge DeCiantis said:

Two years ago Senator Hebert, who may be better known as the "apostle of Prosperity" preached to the people of this State that we were a prosperous nation. He attributed the prosperity to the Republican Party. Yet previous to his nomination as candidate for the United States Senate, and while he was Judge of the Fourth District Court, a man appeared before him on a charge of vagrancy. After some inquiries this poor unfortunate told him that he was poor, had no job, had attempted to find one but was unsuccessful, that he had no money, nothing to eat, no place to sleep and that the only place he could think of getting these necessities, was jail, and the Judge sentenced him to six months. In the face of these circumstances he had the audacity to go throughout this State and preach that we were a prosperous nation. Further than that he knew the condition which existed in his own home town. He misrepresented facts to the voters of this State and was insincere in the statements that he made. His insincerity is still being spread far and wide in this little State of ours. This year he wrote a little "prayer book" which contains Five Untruths. In one of them he charges that the Democrats are instilling fear into the minds of the people as to the extent of unemployment that we have in this Country. Senator Hebert in the face of what stands before him in his own home town, can never be forgiven for a statement of this kind, because mills in every village are stopped and in some places the machinery has been taken out. I say, as a citizen of this State, that I am sorry to think that I have such a man to represent me in the Senate of the United States. In his own town three weeks ago, another man appeared before Judge Whitman in the Fourth District Court on a charge of larceny, for stealing a piece of lead pipe. After the Court inquired why he stole it, the man answered that he had a wife and three children, was unable to get work, had no bread or milk in his home, that his children had to be fed and that the only thing which remained for him to do was to steal so as to enable him to buy some food. He also ought to know that the people who are working in the mills are not making a wage sufficient to pay their expenses. Wages have been reduced and the amount of work decreased. He knows also that a man who works on a mill only makes $8.00 a week. While this fact was being recounted in one of the Democratic rallies, an old Italian lady rose from her seat and said "That's nothing, I run 64 looms and only make $14.00 a week." Yet Senator Hebert has the audacity to write this "prayer book" of untruth, blaming and accusing the Democratic party for instilling fear into the minds of the people as to unemployment. I hope that his soul will not be guided by this Political Prayer. Senator Hebert is not a candidate but through his misrepresentations and insincerity was able to become Senator. He is now out blowing his trumpet to the multitudes asking that Senator Metcalf be elected. He is a dangerous politician. He is as insincere in what he is preaching this year as he was two years ago and I hope that the people of the State of Rhode Island, before casting their vote for Mr. Metcalf remember from whom the praises and orations for Mr. Metcalf's benefit come.

I appeal not only to the Democrats of the State of Rhode Island but also the Republicans, for in Senator Hebert's own home town it should not be forgotten that not only the Democrats are out of employment but the Republicans also. Senator Hebert may preach about his Good Republican government all he wants to, but this country will never experience such times, of prosperity, honesty, loyalty and good government as the American people experienced under that immortal President, Woodrow Wilson.

And so if the people of the State of Rhode Island wish that their interest be taken care of in Washington and in this State, they should cast their ballot for Peter G. Gerry for United States Senator and the rest of the Democratic State Ticket.

DE CIANTIS ANSWERS G. O. P. MEN; CALLS THEM "TWINS OF FINANCE"

Defends Democratic Administration

[Dec 23, 1931]

Speaker at Rally in Crompton Scores Republican Spokesmen Whom He Terms as Being Outside Talent.— Calls One an Ex-Democrat From South Boston and the Other Ex-Democrat From Coventry.—Says Over Half Million Has Been Spent in Improving Clyde Print Works.

Michael De Ciantis made a stirring replay at the Democratic rally in Crompton last evening to the remarks made by the "Twins of Finance" at the Republican mass meeting on Tuesday night in the Odeon at Arctic. He said:

"The Republicans opened their campaign in the Odeon last evening and fired their 'Big Berthas' that were supposed to demolish everything in the way of political opposition, and what did they say? Each campaign our opponents trot out one or more men to stick out their tongues and make faces at the Democratic town administration and to say things that the responsible leaders of the Republican Party are not willing to father. These men sometime last through one campaign and sometimes through a couple of campaigns, and then they fade out of the picture.

"The latest performers made their debut at the Odeon rally. One is an ex-Democrat from South Boston and the other an ex-Democrat from South Coventry.

"The South Boston orator's chief complaint against us is that the town no longer prints a tax book. Just what his particular interest in a tax book would be is hard to understand, because he does not contribute a penny in property taxes to the town, although enjoying all the privileges of citizenship in West Warwick. Of course all well-informed persons know that the tax book was abolished because the more up to date system of sending individual statements to the taxpayers was substituted therefor.

"The other orator criticized our Highway Department. Of course he must be an authority on good highways, having been graduated from our neighboring town of Coventry, whose road system is exceeded only by that of West Greenwich. During his comparatively short tenure of citizenship this Coventry young man managed to hold membership in his native town in the Democratic Party, and then in the Citizens Party. When the latter party had no longer use for him, he crossed the line into West Warwick and became a Republican. If the Socialist Party was able to offer him a better job than the clerkship he now holds in the State House, he would undoubtedly be a roaring Socialist.

"He complains because Clyde Print Works was exempted from taxation, and wants to know why it is idle. This is easy to answer. It is idle for the same reason that the mills at Crompton, Centreville and Natick are idle—because of the Hoover panic. As a result of the exemption from taxes, more than a half million dollars has been expended at Clyde Print Works on property that will yield a big revenue to this town nine years from now, when the exemption has expired.

"This financial wizard was Town Solicitor of the neighboring town of Coventry under the Citizens Party when that tax assessment was made against the Anthony Mill estate which the courts later declared to have been irregularly and illegally made. The result to the Town of Coventry of this young man's wonderful knowledge of taxation cost the town upwards of $20,000.

"Neither of these twins of finance who performed at the Odeon last night have ever cast a vote in the Town of West Warwick. That is the type of talent that the present Republican leaders put forward to do their dirty work."

De Ciantis Denies Obstructive Tactics Were Used at Meeting

Dec 17 1931
Judge Michael DeCiantis, opposition leader at the annual Warwick and Coventry fire district meeting Monday night last evening issued a statement denying the accusation of Adrien W. Hebert, administration leader, that obstructive tactics were used at the meeting for partisan purposes. He asserted that the aid given by the opposition prevented bad blunders being made by the meeting.

The statement follows:

"My attention was drawn to an article containing a statement made by the so-called spokesman of the administration forces of the Warwick and Coventry Fire District published in the Providence Journal of Dec. 16, 1931. The statement contains an accusation that there is a partisan move on the part of the opposition to impede the district from functioning. This, of course, is childish. So far as I'm concerned, I want it understood that I am not attempting, neither do I intend to place any obstacle in the path of progress of the fire district. This I believe is true of the majority of the taxpayers. But the fact remains that the district is not progressing but going farther into debt each year.

"Was it partisanship for the opposition to correct the blunders and mistakes made by the so-called administration forces at the last annual meeting which would have necessitated the calling of a special district meeting in order to enable the district to borrow money pending the receipt of taxes? Was it partisanship on the part of the opposition to correct a resolution three years ago which was introduced by the so-called administration forces which provided for the assessment of the district taxes on a date which fell on a Sunday? Or, was it partisanship for the so-called administration forces to prevent voting by such substantial and qualified citizens of the district whose names were left off the check list either through intent or incompetence? Or was it partisanship on the part of the so-called administration forces to refuse to recognize the taxpayers who wished to have a voice in the meeting?

"I am willing to leave the answer to the fair-minded citizen of the district. The so-called spokesman makes the assertion that a list was posted in about six places in the district. This is news to the majority of the taxpayers. But even if such had been the fact, it is childish to contend that merely because the name of the qualified taxpayer is omitted from the check list, he is therefore disqualified from voting. Such a position would place qualified electors at the mercy of whomsoever makes up the check list. A fire district is nothing more than a public or quasi municipal corporation. The taxpaying inhabitants of the district are admitted as members of the corporation and by charter these only are eligible to vote and to act in its meeting.

"There is no board of canvassers which gives an opportunity to a taxpayer to protect his rights. There is no duty placed upon the taxpayer to see that his name is on the list. There are many pronouncements of law which sustain the rule that a person who is a qualified taxpaying resident may vote at a district meeting even though his name is not on the list. And this position has been taken in this State in regard to quasi municipal corporations such as fire districts.

"The extreme to which the so-called administration forces went to last Monday evening at the annual meeting have made the majority of the taxpayers of the district realize the dangerous situation which exists. Much indignation has been aroused. The condition must be remedied."

DEMOCRATS WILL TAKE CONTROL

Results Show Domination in Both Branches for First Time in History.

By winning nine of the 12 seats in the State House and 23 of the 25 in the Council, the Democrats...

Democratic Aldermen were elected from the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Tenth, Twelfth and Thirteenth wards.

With a few exceptions, Democratic candidates stood or fell with Aldermanic candidates on the respective party tickets.

The most notable exception was the success of Walter D. Manning in the Council from Ward Ten, in which Donald O. Burke, Democrat, won the Council seat.

Again, in Ward Three, where John P. Cooney, Jr., Democrat, was elected Alderman by a margin of 68 votes over Republican...

Comparison between votes polled by candidates in yesterday's municipal election and those in 1912 shows a virtual equality because of two principal factors...

The first of these resulted from the re-division of the city into 13 wards, 12 instead of 10 wards and in a great measure wiping out old ward lines.

The second factor was the change in the law abolishing the property qualification for voters in the 1920 election...

The 1920 election of the city Council by the Board of Aldermen, and 20 Democrats in the Council...

Democratic candidates elected to the Board of Aldermen yesterday were: John P. Cooney, Jr., in the Third Ward; Alderman...

Republicans elected to the board were: Former Alderman Hugh Sprague in the First Ward; Councilman Walter S. Grant...

Democratic and one Republican were elected to the Board of Aldermen in the Second Ward...

Cooney, who was chairman of the Democratic campaign committee during the campaign, received 312 votes.

Democratic candidates elected to the Common Council were: Frank A. Pette, Manua, with a vote of 3058, and Alfred Pinkelstein, with a vote of 3048.

Kevin Barry, Republican, was elected by a vote of 3031.

Other candidates for the Common Council were: Bernard A. McGuinness, Republican, 3044; Donald Clark, Republican, 3030; Robert M. Dwyer, Democrat, 3035.

3 Newly Elected Senators to Take Seats Immediately

The election proved a real upheaval, as it is understood Republican leaders were counting on carrying at least one or two seats...

It was the first time that registry voters had the opportunity of casting their ballots for members of the Providence City Council...

Robert J. Bulker, Democrat, the leader in the Old Republican county also announced himself immediately to complete the unexpired term of the late Theodore Burton.

Grant ran 171 votes over Manning in the ward and Doran ran 104 votes behind Mayor Dwyer.

The Independent ticket ran ahead of the Republican side in the Sixth Ward, but the Republican candidate, George W. O'Brien, was elected.

At present, the same party holds the majority on the Board of Aldermen, but the Mayor has the vote of 3039 to 1754.

Independent candidates had the following totals: Robert S. Cooney, Jr., 3122; Walter D. Manning, 3072; James J. Dwyer, 3031.

Democratic candidates polled votes as follows: William C. Casey, 1941; Maurice W. Winograd, 1824; Antonio Valentini, 1800.

Alderman Noonan ran 617 1/2 votes behind Mayor Dwyer in this ward, but was elected by Manning by 14 votes.

The defeat of two present Republican candidates in the 12th ward where Alderman John P. Bowen of the 12th ward and Alderman Antonio C. Ventrosa in the Thirteenth.

ABSENTEE VOTE ISSUE PASS

Necessary Three-fifths Margin Exceeded on Constitutional Amendment.

Rhode Island electors yesterday voted to adopt the constitutional amendment to substantially increase the margin.

The absentee voting amendment provides that electors absent from the polls but being otherwise qualified to vote at general elections held biennially in November, shall have the right to vote for all constitutional amendments or other propositions, including bond issues, which appear on the ballot.

The amendment further provides that the legislature shall have the authority to carry the provision of the amendment into effect, and to make such special regulations with respect to absentee voting as it deems necessary.

This will be done in time to permit absent voters to participate in the 1922 election party leaders have announced.

Three Democrats remaining out on parole with that of the Republicans on parole two years ago.

In the home town, Newport, Mr. Burdick gained 75 Republican votes, more than he had in 1912.

Other net gains were made by Mr. Burdick in the First and Second wards and by the Providence precincts of the district.

His vote in Providence was 132 less than in 1912, but meanwhile the Democratic vote in Providence was 112 more.

In his home town of Warwick, Mr. Aldrich's vote was 450 less than that given him two years ago.

Most interest centered upon the battle between the two parties in the Providence District where because of domestic political strife it was felt that anything might happen.

It was reported that Mr. Gordon had anticipated certain factions in the home city of Central Falls and that the former Democratic vote there might be withheld from him.

METCALF AND G. O. P. TICKET VICTORIOUS; DEMOCRATS THREATEN CONGRESS CONTROL

Wets Roll Up Stupendous Vote on Referendum. Hopkinton Goes Dry. 172,215 OPPOSE LAW; RESULT IS SURPRISING

Seizing their first opportunity to express themselves directly and apart from any other question on this moot problem, the citizens of the State yesterday voted against the Eighteenth Amendment by the stupendous vote of 172,215 to 48,845.

Even the most ardent wet had not dared predict better than a 2 1/2 to one victory for his cause prior to yesterday's balloting; whereas dries, though conceding their enemies' victory, had conceived that the wet vote could not exceed 60 per cent. of the total.

BUANE VICTORIOUS BY 14,742 MARGIN Sweeping Triumph Gives Democrats Control of Both Branches of City Council.

Seizing all opposition before him, Mayor James H. Dunne yesterday defeated the Providence City Government for another two-year term, defeating Alderman J. Henry Manning, his Republican opponent, by a vote of 47,172 to 32,430, giving him a plurality of 14,742. Edward Armstrong, Communist candidate for Mayor, received a total of 246 votes.

The Mayor's victory was one of the most pronounced in the history of the city, his plurality coming within 14 votes of the plurality given him two years ago when he defeated Connecticut-born Theodore B. Lamson, who was then the Republican candidate for Mayor.

In Full Control With this City Council, Mayor Dunne and his associates will be in full control of the City Government for the coming two years and will be responsible for its management. On the face of the returns, there are to be nine Democrats and four Republicans in the Board of Aldermen, and 23 Democrats and 18 Republicans in the Common Council.

Wets Swing State for Dry Law Repeal by More Than 3 to 1

DUNNE IS VICTOR IN CITY BY 14,742

Democrats Win Control of City Council for First Time in History

Democrats won control of the city of Providence in yesterday's city election. Mayor James E. Dunne winning re-election over Dr. J. Henry Manning, and a majority of Democrats winning seats in the Board of Aldermen and the Common Council.

Mayor Dunne's plurality, on the face of tabulation of returns today, is more than 14,000. It is also indicated that Democrats will occupy nine of the 13 seats in the Board of Aldermen and 23 out of 39 in the Common Council.

Close votes in several of the contests may further change the political makeup of the council on the official tabulation.

Tabulation of the mayoralty vote today gave Mayor Dunne 47,172 votes to 32,430 for Manning, and 218 for Howell Armstrong, Communist candidate, playing Mayor Dunne's plurality at 14,742.

In the 17th Ward the vote was Dunne, 2,847; Manning, 2,431; in the 18th, 2,847; Manning, 2,431.

WETS, DRYS DIVIDE SENATE SEATS

Ohio, Birthplace of Anti-Saloon League, Elects Democrat Repealist

By D. HAROLD OLIVER (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Wets and drys divided about equally the Senate seats in yesterday's elections where prohibition was an issue, while the anti-prohibitionists cut into the preponderantly dry majority in the House.

Three States holding wet referenda—Illinois, Rhode Island and Massachusetts—went overwhelmingly for "wet."

The anti-prohibition forces made one of their biggest raids in Ohio, birthplace of the Anti-Saloon League, Robert J. Bulkley, Cleveland Democrat, advanced repeal of the 18th amendment, while even Senator McCormick, who even yesterday Ohio has sent to the Senate in eight years.

WITH MCCORMICK DEFEATED In other senatorial contests where the anti-prohibition forces were routed, James Hamilton Lewis in Illinois, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, and Ruth Hanna McCormick, and approximately 200,000.

I desire to express my thanks for and my appreciation of the generous support given me by so many of my fellow citizens. In the nation the Democratic Party has much for which to be grateful. We have elected a sufficient number of Senators and Representatives to become an effective force in determining the policies of the Congress. A strong minority makes for progress and good government.

In Providence, Woonsocket and Central Falls we have been intrusted by the people with the conduct of their cities. This is an unusual opportunity for service.

Let us see to it that we give the kind of government which will insure them honest, efficient and forward-looking administrations and make them better and more inspiring places in which to live.

Roosevelt Has Greatest Victory in N. Y. History

His 450,000 Majority Yesterday Far Outstrips Even Smith's Record of 385,000 Margin in 1922; Carries Entire State Ticket Into Office

New York, Nov. 5.—(AP)—New York democracy had a new happy warrior today and the State had a governor re-elected to office by the largest plurality it ever gave an executive.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, who called his friend and predecessor, Alfred E. Smith, "the Happy Warrior," in nominating him for President, wanted that title himself as he surveyed radiantly the 725,000-vote margin by which he was returned yesterday to the governorship.

His victory was of a decisive nature, unmatched in the history of the State since the record plurality for a candidate for governor was the 285,000 by which Smith beat Nathan E. Miller in 1922.

Now was it the fruit alone of Democratic strength in New York city, which usually piles up totals for the party's candidates, against deficits up state. New York city gave Roosevelt 550,800 of the lead he accumulated yesterday over Charles H. Tuttle, Republican, but 190,800 and more of the plurality came from the Republican territory up state.

With him in his state-wide sweep Roosevelt carried the entire Democratic ticket, although by margins somewhat smaller than his.

DEMOCRATS IN BAY STATE MAKE A CLEAN SWEEP

Nov. 5.—(AP)—Carried along on the Democratic tide which swept away normal Republican majorities throughout the country, Massachusetts, traditionally Republican, found itself today listed in the Democratic ranks.

Although the incomplete count left the results of the contest for governor still uncertain, the Republicans apparently lost the seat in the United States Senate now controlled by the Republican national committee and the filed for whom former President Calvin Coolidge made a late campaign radio appeal.

G.O.P. LEAD IN STATE CUT IN HALF

Ticket Headed by Case Wins by Reduced Majorities; State Decidedly Wet

Election of Francis B. Condon, former Democratic leader of the House of Representatives, to Congress from the Third Congressional district for both the short and the long term featured the State election yesterday. He takes the seat vacated by Judge Jeremiah E. O'Connell.

While the Democrats were piling up big pluralities for local candidates in the cities the voters throughout the State were declaring themselves against the prohibition law by three to one.

Disaster-stricken Massachusetts, in many of the rural districts of the State cast the party large blocks of votes. That was especially true in Washington and Newport counties. They made gains, however, in Lincoln, Johnston, Bristol, Cumberland and Burlington and re-elected their entire State ticket led by Gov. Norman S. Case.

United States Senator Jesse H. Metcalf, Republican, was elected over former Senator Peter G. Gerry, on the face of the returns, by the close vote of 2113 out of a total of more than 21,000 votes in the United States senate contest, subject to tabulation by the State Returning Board, gives Metcalf 113,735 and Gerry 107,722. The U. S. P. plurality in the other contests on the State ticket were slightly in excess of that for the senatorship.

Democrats Make Widespread Gains Throughout Land

Turning with furious assault upon its ancient foe, the Democratic party raided Republican strongholds yesterday from coast to coast, lifting its own favorites to new glory as it rocked State governments and threw into serious doubt the political make-up of the new Congress.

The full extent of the off-year sweep, and whether it had carried into office a Democratic majority in Senate or House, remained undetermined today and may not be known for hours.

Every indication pointed to one of the closest divisions in years. As checks, the Republican nominee for governor in Republican Idaho it became a Democratic governorship on C. Ben Ross.

In pushed Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt along by a 700,000 plurality to the reelection so much desired by those who want to see him named for the presidency in 1932. Returning James Hamilton Lewis to the Senate, it denied with thundering emphasis the senatorial aspirations of Ruth Hanna McCormick.

In Republican Connecticut it elevated a Democrat, Wilbur L. Cross, to the governorship. In Republican Pennsylvania it whittled to slender proportions the lead for Gifford Pinchot, the Republican nominee for governor in Republican Idaho it became a Democratic governorship on C. Ben Ross.

In Arizona, Colorado, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wyoming, Democrats won seats in the House of Representatives.

The strain of activities proved last night to be too much for the nervous health of the child as he will have to be with the very strain, and the parent must consider well whether the child can stand additional strain and how much.

According to Dr. Max Schram, school nurse in quite many of the young child, the strain of the work of a child when the normal physical growth is in the decline may be required, especially of a child who is not being more than 10 minutes a day from school and cultural activities.

There are three hours for play (at 8), three-quarters of an hour for study, and the remainder for school. The increase is expected for the structure of the child's life to be allowed for physical work, and the child should be allowed to play for one hour before going to school.
