COLLEUR THE ANCHOR RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

MARCH, 1947

Vol. XIX

Ralph Stuart To Do Two Council Members Honorsat Soph Hop Attend Connecticut Conference of N.S.O.

Queen to Reign April 19 During "April Showers"

BHULL -----

LIBRARY

Ralph Stuart, one of the College's favorite music masters, will do the honors at the annual Soph Hop to be held in the College, Saturday, April 19. Marilyn Hay and her committee have chosen "April Showers" as their dance theme. No wonder Sophs have been muttering, "Al Jolson will be sorry he ever started this." The highlight of the evening will be the crowning of the queen or The Girl With Whom You'd Most Like To Be Caught in a Cloudburst.

The dance committee gave these two reasons for the choice of theme: it always seems to rain when R.I.C.E. holds a social function, and the Sophs have been told they are all wet anyway. Headed by Marilyn Hay, the se cretive committee includes Stella Tesavis, Sylvia Whitehead, Patricia Di Sarro, Alice Leon, Ruth Ducharme, Claire O'Brien, Larry Wildgoose, Robert Collinge, Betty H. Pryce, and Madelyn Goodwin, ex-officio.

Four Classes Geared For Song Contest To Be Held April 23

The accustomed aura of secrecy and evasion still pervades the mysterious schemes for Song Contest Night to be held this year on April 23. Under these conditions even the "newsiest" reporter would be placed at a disadvantage, but gallant staff members armed with a will and a way set out resolutely and, against overwhelming odds, returned — empty-handed! But this much is evident — Because of excellent song material lems; that racial and religious (?) superior voices (?) and a prejudice, bigotry, and discriminagenuine spirit of cooperation (?) each class is confident of victory.

As in past years each class must present a College Alma Mater and Cheer Song, preferably with original words and music. Judgment of songs is on this

- Presentation		point
Originality		point
Tonal quality		point
Articulation		point
Song Contest	loadors fo	- +1.1

Contest leaders for this year are well qualified because of their past musical experience. Maryjo Trayner and Maureen Maloney, seniors, Catherine Conway and Joan Doyle, juniors, and Ruth Donnelly, sophomore, guar-antee a polished presentation. Norma Ferguson, freshman, promises that her class will compare favorably with the other classes.

Mitchell-Black Report Provokes Interest

The Connecticut College for Women was, on February 22, the scene of the Connecticut and Rhode Island Regional Conference of the Chicago Student Conference. Previously, in December, student conference had been held at the University of Chicago Here was started the movement for a National Student Organization, of which the New London regional conference was an outgrowth. Although our Student Council did not have sufficient funds to send delegates to the first conference, they were able to send the one at New London. These delegates reported on the meeting at Forum, February 26.

The N.S.O. is an organization of students as students. From the Chicago Conference came the National Continuations Committee. now working for full national participation in a Constitutional Conmended to the Continuations to Committee that the principles is. stated below be a guide to the N.S.O.:

and desires is clearly defined by dived for his unexpurgated play peace, democracy, the perpetuation and strengthening of international friendships, understanding and cultural exchange, and in the now we have to finish college first. discussion and solution of their educational and economic probprejudice, bigotry, and discrimination be totally disavowed by this NSO; that this organization be equipped with adequate machinery to deal with the problems and issues with which it is confronted; and that it should carry out its Continued on Page 2

Faculty Features In Recent News

President Lucius A. Whipple was elected to the executive committee of the American Association of Teachers Colleges at the Japan, and world peace. 29th annual meeting of the or- R.I.C.E., one of the sixty-four ganization in Atlantic City, March

The winning class receives 40 of Phi Delta Kappa, men's hon-points and the runner-up 30 orary society, at Boston Univer-points toward the ANCHOR. sity February 8. "American I World Unity. Contine

* *

Romantic Hearts to Flutter Willie S.'s Naughty Lines Cut

Footlights will burn brightly, ered a case of parental delinquenromantic hearts will flutter, and cy . . . Lady Capulet is jealous of theatre devotees are sure to sit her daughter's youthful charm, back in enjoyment when the Dra- while Papa is concerned with wine matic Leaguers follow tradition in and song . . . Poor Juliet is cared for by the uncultured, conniving, spearian drama, Romeo and Juliet. materialistic Nurse But such an event calls for a preperformance briefing and rehearsal retakes.

During the lengthy and enjoyable rehearsals anything and 'Tis a case of love at first sight, everything happens. A call for intense and eventually deadly .... Romeo"--and there are manyalways brings forth the dashing, "aggressive," Paul Donovan. But (Dave Brooks); hasty Tybalt Juliet!" brings either a redhead (Roland Marechal); the unreor a blonde. You'll see, depending quited suitor, considerate Paris upon which performance you at-Kay Mitchell and Mary Black to tend, either prettily redheaded you - heard - of - him - before freshman, Gloria Townsend or the senior "cynic," Marylouise Fillo. Everyone knows the famous balcony scene containing the line, Romeo, Romeo, wherefore art thou," but R.I.C.E. has a new an-gle on it. Romeo will emote, while theatrical ethics . . . There is a but standing on a terrace; thus vention to be held in the spring the shaky balcony is omitted. Be-or fall. The Conference recom-sides it helps bring the Juliets up type) complete with negligee . . .

the concern of the student for copy. Also Juliet has aged, but time. After all, marriage at fourteen years was usual then, but

SIDELIGHTS FOR THEATREGOERS Since the actors can't ad-lib footnotes, here are a few sidelights Romeo and Juliet can be consid-

Dr. Tobin Emphasizes Need for World Unity

The 10th annual Rhode Island World Affairs Week opened March 8, bringing to Rhode Islanders up-to-the-minute information on world affairs. Discussions and lec-tures by a battery of nationally known speakers known speakers were woven around the general theme "World Unity." The speakers spoke of the problems of European nations, those connected with the new sponsors of this week, had as its guest speaker, March 12, Dr. Irwin M. Tobin of the State De-Professor Charles W. Underhill and Dr. John G. Read were initi-ated into Alpha Lambda Chapter ated into Alpha Lambda Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa, men's hon- "American Foreign Policy and

Continued on Page 3

'Romeo and Juliet' Appear at R.I.C.E. For First Time

No. 5

High Schools Invited: Cast Plans Two Nights Run

William Shakespeare's immortal Romeo and Juliet will be given at eight o'clock on the nights of March 18 and 19. Because the College does not posses facilities for the famous "balcony scene, the play has never been attempted here before. However, the ingenious directress, Miss Virginia Prescott, has solved the problem in a most commendable fashion, having substituted a terrace for the usual balcony. Reliable sources say this arrangement is working out most satisfactorily.

As is customary, high school students of the state have been invited to the performance of March 18. Both performances are, of course, open to Riceans and their guests. A new feature of this Shakespeare production will be double casting of some of the female roles. The cast in its entirety is as follows:

Georgia Townsend and Mary Lou Fillo Paul Donovan Romeo Mercutio David Brooks Harold Merritt Benvolio. Tybalt. Roland Marechal Friar Lawrence John Trombie Lord Capulet Normand Lavoie Eleanor Connors Lady Capulet and Lorraine Bolduc Gloria Isles Nurse and Mary Jo Trayner Lady Montague Ruth Donnelly Lord Montague Leo Savoie

Continued on Page 3

Visual Educators Plan Suitable Film Program

Here is a lead toward what our classrooms may be like in the notto-distant future. Dr. John G. Read recently returned from New York, where he attended a special meeting of the Audio-Visual Committee of the National Council for Social Studies. There he met with the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors, which include representatives from all the major Hollywood companies, to plan a program for the release of current films suitable for use in the social Continued on Page 3

Marylouise Fillo Anchor Welcomes New Staff Members

The Anchor welcomes to its staff Mary and Lillian Migone, Eileen Geoghegan, Barbara Ko-trys, Emma Mitchell, Patricia McCarthy, and Frances Steere. These students have successfully finished their apprenticeships and are now full-fledged staff members. Congratulations!

be one or two?-Georgia and Marylouise). Did you know that actors must always die with their feet upstage? And always, a gradtouch of the French dramatists Juliet .

. Lady Capulet is jealous of Donovan won't approve) . . . At a Grand Ball which the Montagues crash, Romeo and Juliet meet . . . Romeo does work fast!

In all five deaths occur onstage

(Ray Lombardi); Romeo (Paul-

Donovan); and Juliet (would that

. (Dean

to Romeo's level-of height, that Though the men are unaccustomed to their costumes, they wear There have been other devia- outfits complete with tights and tions from Shakespeare's patterns, glittering adornments. Frankly, The Chicago Student Confer- especially in lines. Line and line the males feel ill-at-ease, but they ence feels that there does exist in again Miss Prescott has said, "Cut look quite dashing ... One of the the United States a definite need out the next part." "Why?" in most ably done scenes—and one for the formation of a NSO; that unanimous chorus from the play- of the players' favorites-is the this proposed organization should ers. "Because," came the reply, dueling scene where Mercutio is be founded on common needs "it's naughty!" Then, everyone mortally wounded and says, mortally wounded and says, 'They've made worms' meat of copy. Also Juliet has aged, but me." So far, he's insisted that only two years, since Willie S.'s they've made "mince meat" out of him. Shades of Thanksgiving

ELECTIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL President-Mary Holton Vice-President-Mary Black Secretary-Bernadette Kelly Treasurer-Frances Gannon 102 Committee-Marilyn Hay Cafeteria-Haig Sarkesian Girls' Recreation Room-Dorothy Habershaw

Handbook Editor-Delores Marchand

RICOLED EDITORS Editor-in-Chief-Claire Auger Associate Editor-

Art Editor-Maryjo Trayner Literary Editor-

Virginia Livingston Business Manager—Doris Wilson Photography—Marion McCarthy and Doris Lavallee

WAA President-Mary McDole

Vice-President-Ellen Fay Secretary-Eileen Geoghegan Continued on Page 4

THE ANCHOR

Published monthly by the students of Rhode Island College of Education

Fab CP-1	obligati
Editor-in-Chief Joan Alexander Associate Editor Evelyn Gettler	dents th
News Editor Betty Pryce	gent de
Staff, Lang Alain Claime Deirne Mann Plack Cone Cimformi	0
Staff: Lena Aloia, Claire Beirne, Mary Black, Gene Cianfarani, Patricia DiSarro, Eileen Geoghegan, Mary Holton, Barbara Kotrys,	Since
and Patricia McCarthy.	achieve
Feature Editor	the act
Staff: Claire Auger, Lorraine Bolduc, Betty Corrigan, Marylouise
Fillo, Evelyn Lemaire, Virginia Livingston, Ruth Mandeville, Delores	and un
Marchand, Emma Mitchell, and Maryjo Trayner.	fluence
Alumni Editor Norma Dooley	partisar
Alumni Editor
Sports Editor. William McIntyre	row cha
Staff: Frances Steere.	the NS
Business Manager Marilyn Hay	tives or Circulation Manager
Make-up Editor	to the e
Typists: Lillian Migone, Mary Migone, and Fannie Tavares.	of stud

"THESE are the times that try men's souls" . . . specifically Chapel, Forum, and Assembly periods. Inattention is prevalent, distract-ing restlessness is all too-apparent, and discourtesy reigns supreme.

Is it necessary for the Administration to prohibit the taking of notebooks and texts into the Auditorium? If it is, rest assured that the restraining order will not be long in forthcoming. To our way of thinking, if the sources of overwhelming temptation to the majority of students, personal books and notes, were replaced by sufficient copies of large and small hymnals to serve each and every studient, the principal causes of this general disturbance could and would be eliminated. Four people trying to sing from one book cannot be expected to be either attentive, interested, or melodious.

The library possesses every convenience for study. Chapel, Forum, and Assembly are not study periods; their names are sufficient indication of their purpose.

Now this coffee and doughnut business is a funny thing . . . With N all the good intentions in the world we go down of a morning to the cafeteria to fortify ourselves for a hard day's classes with a cup of strong, hot coffee. We're really going to stay only long enough, mind you, to gulp down that insidious beverage and say a brief "how-de-do" to our pals. Strangely enough though, that "how-de-do" inevitably leads your history yet?" . . . "I can't understand why he said that to me . . .", "S-ss-sh, it must be at least a carat-and-a-half! . . ." and me . . .", "S-ss-sh, it must be at least a carat-and-a-half! . . ." and so on until those few little minutes have consumed all of the first period.

Stalking upstairs with books clutched in both hands, we firmly resolve that on the morrow we shall drink our coffee standing up. No more of this wasting time for us! Oh, no!

The next day, confident in our own strength of will, we gaily trip down to the caf . . . (Short pause for fifty minutes) . . . Then it's, "Oh, look at the time! . . . Hurry up! We're two minutes late for class already , . . We'll never learn.

THE most natural thing in the world for a man to do is to attempt to justify his inability to "measure up" to certain standards. His honesty in this rationalization process marks him as either a successful failure or an out and out failure. There are students who feel it necessary to make untrue and often ridiculous statements about the reasons for their failure in a course. There are success do initial the reasons for their failure in a course. These excuses do injustices not only to the college as a whole but to these students themselves.

The honor of originally having been considered "college material" is too great to be deliberately abused by falsifying the under-lying cause of a "U" in a course. They who besmirch their college or themselves for the sake of salvaging meager shreds of self esteem are really failures in every sense of the word. Nothing is so completely unconvincing as, "I flunked out because my teacher didn't like me," yet all of us have been inclined at times to make such statements.

It is not easy to say "I did not meet the standards. I alone am at fault" . . . yet he who can stand squarely on his feet, recognize his limitations, and admit defeat has twisted his original failure into a resounding success. That is the part that counts.

. Briefly, many professors are poor public speakers. Mumbling, super dramatics, monotonous phrasing, and halting make a lec-ture difficult to follow. It is frustrating and wearing for a student interested in a subject's inherent value to have to waste time interpreting sounds rather than meanings. Organization of lecture material is of paramount importance in courses built around masses of facts. Yet many instructors lecture in a haphazard and impromptu manner. Still others put clear outlines on the blackboard and then proceed to tangents of their own, leaving to the students the job of integrating what they see with what they hear. It is ironic that great men with great messages and eager listeners are unable to share adequately their knowledge.

"Oratorical deficiencies have long existed among the faculties of many great American colleges and universities. It would be worth-while for students, faculty, and university in general if some super-vision and training of the faculty lecturers were inaugurated. This training should begin at the undergraduate level for those students who intend to lead careers where public speaking forms an integral part of their position. With greater vocal proficiency on the part of the lecturer should come greater comprehension on the part of the student

The Radcliffe News

N. S. O. Continued from Page 1

ons to the American stunrough careful and intellicisions.

this organization cannot its objectives or maintain ive support of all college iversity students if its in-should be diverted into sectarian, or other narannels, be it resolved that O shall have as its objecnly those which contribute enhancement of the welfare ents and facilitate student contributions to international understanding and good will and shall specifically refrain from becoming involved in partisan political affairs, sectarian religious considerations, or similar matters which do not directly affect students in their functions and activities as students, with the single exception that the NSO shall stand unalterably opposed to any political doctrine which would stifle free and democratic education in the United States

The aims are:

1. To become a national student organization.

2. To promote student friendship on national and international scale.

3. To secure for all people equal rights and possibilities for primary, secondary, and higher education regardless of sex, race, or religion.

4. To secure for all students an extensive system of governmental and private aid in obtaining scholarships, family allowances, the provision of textbooks and supplies, and all other means to assure their independence wherever necessary

5. To encourage student-faculty cooperation on student problems and the extension of democratic student-controlled student governments and establish the independence and freedom from censorship of student organizations and publications.

To assure that all activity 6. funds are controlled by the students themselves.

7. To foster student cultural activities; to secure the widest possible publication of advances of knowledge in the pure, natural, industrial, and social sciences, and the fine arts, and methods of circulation of these publications which would make available to all students the fullest information regarding such new developments.

To establish measures to 8 eliminate the commercialization of intercollegiate sports and to advocate the establishment of adequate courses of physical education throughout the nation; to sponsor interracial, interfaith, intercollegiate sports on an amateur basis; to establish adequate medical facilities for athletes: to eliminate the obligation of athletes to sign injury waivers; to promote adequate recreational facilities.

The structure of the proposed NSO will be: four officers, an Ex-ecutive Council, a General Assem-Regional Committees, and bly, Judiciary and Advisory Councils.

In our Forum, the debate on

Miss Thompson Acquires Student Point of View

Editor Joan received a long newsy letter from Miss Amy Thompson, former Anchor faculty adviser now studying for her doctorate at the University of Minnesota. Joan passed this letter on to her editorial board, who enjoyed it immensely, and who thought Anchor readers might be interested in Miss Thompson's progress as a student. She is finding the graduate school a happy. stimulating, and busy place. (May we say that we feel Miss Thompson would be as happy and as busy as possible almost any place?).

Although we don't feel we can reproduce Miss Thompson's letter in its entirety, we can't resist two passages. First of all, Miss Thompson observes sympathetically, "It does not take long, when one gets on the other side of the desk, to wonder why professors have such strange ideas about assignments and examination questions." Also, you will readily understand our pride in her flattering statement, "Surely with so many good people on the Editorial Board and with Mr. Greene's inspiration, the Anchor will be just tops.' I wait impatiently for the March issue." (Editor's note: Love that woman!).

The Anchor's new permanent faculty advisor is Mr. Frank Greene of the college English Department.

whether or not to join produced two points of contention:

- 1. The problem of southern colleges refusing to include aim for no discrimination. (This was so indicated at Chicago.)
- 2. Will the government actually ever provide scholarships?

Under these two points the first caused considerable discussion. It was debated (a) that the southern colleges will never join if that aim is included, (b) if the Constitutional Convention includes the aim that no discrimination is to be allowed and the southern colleges are disaffiliated, then will it really be a national organization? and (c) will the Constitutional Convention definitely include this aim?

This first point caused so much discussion that there was not time for the second one. The matter of raising funds necessarily rests with the vote to join. Our College has been allotted the minimum entrance fee, twenty-five dollars. It is also to be decided whether the money shall be given by Student Council, by voluntary club and class subscriptions, or by proportional club and class subscriptions. After due consideration by all four classes, the question of joining will given-truth. be brought up again in Forum.

Reverie

This morning's sunshine, Shimmering on the ground, Reveals to me A universe of memories, Of morning's dew On lady slippers glistening, And snowy puffs of clouds Touched with blue Wandering aimlessly Through a powdered sky, Of winding lanes Overgrown with evergreens, And mountains, like skyscrapers, Radiant, against the stillness of the sky.

But most of all My treasure chest of beauty found. This morning's sunshine, Casting shadows on the ground, Reminds me of the days we Spent in ecstasy out on the roving sea The sea, with silver coated arms, Entwined us both In a dazzling world All our own. Where the bright sun rays Warmed our hearts, And blinded our eyes To the tumult outside.

There was world sublime, God, Nature, Humans On a pedestal. And I wonder now When our love Has long since waned. When life's mad Inhuman rush Has crushed Our hopes and dreams, Wherever you may be, Look for God and Nature.

Patricia Di Sarro

Reward

To be surrounded by naiveness untainted by the artificial . . . rediscover truth unsoftened by tact . . . to feel youth in the eager grasp of small fingers pressing upon your palm . . . to hear youth in unrestrained laughter or bitter disappointed . . . to see youth in every movement . . . to be enraptured by its spirit . . . the restlessness . . . the intenseness.

These are the riches of teaching. To read a trust, a plea for un-derstanding in eyes that search vour own.

To recognize friendship presented in a pencil, a stick of gum, a piece of chocolate; to feel friendship in the disclosure of a secret, a story of "home," the unburdening of a source of anguish.

To know that you have something of value to impart . . to watch the growth of minds, or better yet, of souls which you have helped to mold . . . to see an idea sprout, then rise and spread with time . . . to find contentment in a service rendered well.

To know that you are better for having given and having been

Do you ever, Then think of me?

Erin Go Bragh

By Ellen Fay

Once again March has rolled around and with it comes the gay celebration of St. Patrick's Day By all evidences we know that the airy spirits from "the little green Isle" have woven their way into the hearts of Riceans. Sure, and what else will explain those earnest, but vain, attempts at Irish jigs in the locker room, and those strains of "Did Your Mother Come from Ireland," "McNa-mara's Band," and "My Wild Irish Rose"?

Strangers may ask about that green look on our corridor walls, -no, painters weren't hired over the week-end—that's just a re-flection of what Joe College considers an appropriate tie for March 17.

And speaking of the wearin' of the green, sophs and seniors will highlight the day when they dress for the gala party which the underclassmen are giving for their big sisters." Have fun, folks, but that you don't make those Irish forefathers turn in their graves.

Visual Education

Continued from Page 1 studies classroom. Some of these proposed are The Westerner, Wilson, and Abe Lincoln in Illinois.

Dr. Read has had excellent training for planning such a program. He has been very active in audio-visual work for the past ten years, having taught Visual Education here at R.I.C.E. and at Boston University, where he has managed that department for the past four summers. He is a past president of the New England Department of Visual Instruction of the N.E.A. and is an enthusiastic exponent of the possible role of ing served in the Army in that Audio-Visual Education in tomor- area, John had many stories with row's classrooms.

RICE FLAKES

How is it that people with names like McDole, Clancy, and O'Brien attend Polish whist parties in their spare time? It calls for an explanation, girls!

Evelyn Lemaire and Gladys Peterson, Kappa Delta Pi representatives to the New Jersey Conference, and Claire Beirne and "Jimmy" Baughan, IRC repre-sentatives to the New Haven Teachers College Conference, had rapturous" times, we hear.

Is it Mary Smith's modesty which keeps her from entering the Poetry Reading Contest, or is she just giving the other contestants a break?

Marvio Travner and "Jackie' Maloney must be trying to soothe their ears between senior refor another outing when old man hearsals by teaching music at Barnard.

> Contact Ruth Mandeville to discover why a pussy cat washes his face so often. (Ruth is catching up on her reading of twelve years ago).

> Congrats to Dot Habershaw, freshman, on her recent acquisition to the third finger, left hand!

Why was Helen Carty greeted so hilariously by those seniors who seemed so anxious about her new hairdo?

They're seniors (again!) they're Riceans . . . and what's more, they're engaged. Who? . . . Why Arlene Allston, Ruth Finkelstein, and Margie Jahn, of course.

Professor Carlson must have made that appointment with Pat Streker to help her conquer that fear of ladybugs.

For obvious reasons, we surmise that John O'Brien has been patronizing the Winkelman and Finkelstein Company of Centredale!

her way into hundreds of New England homes every other Friday night at six-thirty p. m. over

Two aspiring newspaper correspondents from the Sophomore Class, Madelyn Goodwin and plus (and I quote) "other in-formative articles." Why? Well, after all, it may be O.K. to have a "case" on some-published in the Providence Journal-Bulletin.

> Dot Rossi, junior, gives piano lessons in her "spare" time, as does freshman Norma Ferguson.

> Through the grapevine we discover that Eleanor Fanning, soph, is our latest pin-up girl, having posed for lens enthusiasts of the Woonsocket Camera Club at their annual "Glamour Night."

If a sudden spark of genius shows itself at St. Dunstan's School, we'll know that it is becently been tutoring there.

Who's Doing What and Where; News from the Alumni

Rhode Island College of Educa- able gunners to learn the intrition is holding a bridge on Mon-day, March 24, in the college Re-guns." ception Room. The money will be used to secure suitable memorials to Dr. Clara Craig and our World War II heroes.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Grieve of Dumfries, Scotland, announce the birth of a daughter, Lynette Margaret. Mrs. Grieve is the former Grace Tennant, '34, of East Providence.

Alice Knott, graduate of R.I.C.E. in '42 and later of Boston University, social worker in the Rhode Island Hospital Orthopedic Clinic, is the founder and leader of the Merriettes, a club for handicapped girls at Federal

Marie Zampini, '44, is the demonstration teacher of nature study for the Massachusetts Audubon Society in the public schools

Henry P. Birmingham, '42,

former research student at Boston University, has been awarded the Distinguished Civilian Service

Award by Secretary of the Navy,

James Forrestal, "for his out

Hill House, Providence.

there.

The Associated Alumni of building training devices that en-

Laurian Price, '45, and her first grade class at the Prospect Street School were chosen as typical representatives of this grade in the fourth of a series of articles on the Pawtucket school system by the Pawtucket Times.

Margaret Briggs Bill, '41, former editor-in-chief of the Anchor, is now teaching English and social studies at the South Pasadena Junior High School in California.

Mr. and Mrs. George Connor announce the birth of a baby boy, Michael. Mr. Connor, '39, is a teacher at Cranston High School.

Dale Hoffman Cali, '44, is teaching English at Gorton High School.

Betty Murphy, '44, has an assistantship at Boston University.

The engagement of Sarah Fisher, '46, to Ronald F. Arm-strong of Toronto, Canada, has been announced. Miss Fisher is a faculty member of the Lincoln Memorial Junior High School, standing work in designing and Saylesville

A Part Or Apart

I am a lover of children,

A lover of books and of trees A searcher of truth and of happiness

With pride in much more than degrees.

I can be thrilled by sweet music Or a lad with a loveable pup, By a field of wild strawberries growing And fresh, cold milk in a cup.

And I have longed for a walk down the road When there is work to be done

For I'm not immune to temptations

Of putting off duty for fun.

very alike;

one age

and man.

More than mere money to me: Yet some seem to think I am not

For I am a teacher, you see.

WORLD AFFAIRS Continued from Page 1

World Affairs Week is held annually "to promote broader public P understanding of world problems A facing the United States." Realiz- B. ing the large part which American Sa youth will play in solving these G problems, a Junior World Affairs A F Week was conducted in schools throughout the state.

Through Open Eyes

"So you're a teacher!" . . . and through squinted eyes, a vision appears — a large, airy classroom, shelves of books, rows of desks, the blackboard, a squirming mass of youth . . . and you. That's what a teacher is.

Or is it? To be a leader, you must be a follower. To be a teacher, you must be a learner. Odd?

Incredible though it may seem, we do learn . . . everyday something . . . from someone.

Professor, farmer, child, animal and tree - from each we take a part that our knowledge, and thus our lives, may be enriched. And those from whom we learn; are they not teachers? Although lack of insight may reveal but an example of "what not to be,' all that exists has something of value to give.

"So you're a teacher!" and through open eyes a vision appears -a world of living creatures, each a teacher disguised beneath another name.

The Lamron

PLAY Continued from Page 1

Commue	a from Page 1
aris	Raymond Lombardi
eter	Audrey Livesey
rince Escalus	John Trombie
pothecary	Helen Page
althasar	Betty Cullen
ampson	Francis Steere
regory	Barbara Hitchcock
braham	Barbara McGuire
riar John	Chester Fuller
rologue	Chester Fuller

Now that you know what's go-At B. U. . ing on at good ole' R.I.C.E., hop aboard the caravan and find out what other colleges are doin'. At Western Washington College of Education . . . dreaming up something practical again. This month they're selling Profiles -· a sort of little "black" book for the gals as well as the guys. It contains the names, addresses, and belles among the paranoids be-phone numbers of all students cause "it's the cheapest way out."

COLLEGE CARAVAN

lege . . . keeping right in line take a "case" out? with the spirit of the "Fighting Since a young ma Irish" of Notre Dame by giving a Saint Patrick's Day Coffee without anyone on the committee whose name even sounds like that of an Irishman.

At Albany State . . . conduct-ing a survey with regard to cheating (ahem!), boosting the NSO by sending delegates to the regional conference at Vassar like the one Mary Black and Kay Mitchell attended at New London, and (most important) keeping the Anchor on file in their college library.

. becoming democratic by letting a mere student in on a faculty meeting. Said student well repaid the faculty for this privilege by declaring them "not the old fogeys they are thought to be, but a group of earnest men with colorful personalities.

Keeping Busy

On the Campus

CHARLES CARROLL CLUB

der the social chairmanship of Dave Brooks, has plans that are unconfirmed. There are hints of a "cornishly unique" dance which promises to be the feature event of the spring social season. The mystery surrounding the affair is in-

Our basketball troopers are due for a treat when the supper in their honor is held and sponsored

NATURE CLUB

R.I.C.E.'s out - of - door girls treated themselves to a hot dog roast and a mystery ride, which really was a mystery to no one, except the mustard. The place?

Armed with seven pounds of hamburg, the hardy souls headed weather played interference. The solution? Simple. Party cancelled.

KAPPA DELTA PI

month of lighted tapers and solemn pledges. President Gene Cian-farani announces that pledgees will be initiated in traditional manner in a month. The lucky ones will be notified some time this month and then will be voted into the Atlantic City knows all about

R.I.C.E. Reason? Evelyn Lemaire

and Gladys Peterson visited that fair city as representatives of

I.R.C.

talent at home, John Lauth entertained and enlightened the

I.R.C.'ers with his views concerning the English people. Hav-

Continued on Page 4

Proving that there's plenty of honor society later.

Kappa.

All eyes here are on April, the Hamburg sold to the Freshmen.

Skeleton Valley, Johnston.

vitation enough!

by the "West-enders.

The Charles Carroll Club, un-

At Brown . . finding their At Geneso State Teachers Col- body, but who'd expect you to

Since a young man's fancy is no doubt turning to thoughts of Spring - tra la - we will leave you with these thoughts in mind: The more arguments you win, the less friends you'll have. * * *

The best way to kill time is to work it to death.

When you stop to think, don't forget to start again. * * *

And it's a fresh egg that get's cause Hope Williamson has reslapped in the pan. (A yoke).

station WFCI.

Your dreams and my dreams are

We each have a part in the plan For we are both of one place and

And one purpose-to serve God

I have a job that has offered

of their kind

The Lamron

Page 3

* * Barbara Hitchcock, frosh, sings

Page 4

IN RETROSPECT

Ricoleds and their guests danced on January 10 to the strains of Ralph Stuart's orchestra. The occasion? The All-College Ball, sponsored-by the Student Council and held at the Narragansett Hotel. Mary Holton, charming in blue velvet, was elected All-College Girl.

We hissed the villain and cheered the hero at the spine-tingling performance of "Under the Gaslight" by the Dramatic League. Presented on January 17 this thespian trip to "Little Eva" days featured an amazing waterfront scene complete with docks and rowboat.

* The faculty and the seniors enjoyed a social gathering at the traditional faculty-sponsored tea for seniors on February 5.

Hearts, flowers, and cherubic Cupids presided over the college reception room on February 7 Riceans and their friends attended the pre-Valentine's Day Senior Informal Dance. * *

Gleeful sophomores electrified the college on February 9 by outwitting the watchful senior guards and spiriting away the coveted iron ANCHOR. An added feature, of course, was the eighty points gained in the process by the ingenious sophs.

Valentine's Day was made memorable by the mental battle waged between four representatives of Simmons College and four from R.I.C.E. on Listerine's Quiz of Two Cities. Joan Alexander Gene Cianfarani, Evelyn Lemaire and Audrey Livesey were the triumphant four who emerged from the fray with a final score of 165-155 in favor of R.I.C.E.

The afternoon of February 17 saw I.R.C. members playing hostess to foreign exchange students from Brown. Those attending found the meeting thoroughly interesting and entertaining and gave glowing reports in answer to all queries. In the evening, the seniors gave a party for the freshmen, at which the hostesses far outnumbered the guests. The few frosh who did arrive, however, were glad they had not passed up the event.

Mary Black and Kay Mitchell were Student Council delegates to the Connecticut and Rhode Island Regional Conference of the Chicago Student Conference February 22 at New London. At a subsequent Forum, they presented interesting reports on the National Student Organization now in the process of formation.

When a girl is sixteen she is pretty;

wrinkles; When she is thirty, she has gray hair: But when she is thirty-five, she turns Blond and starts all over again.

From W.W.C.

ELECTIONS Continued from Page 1 Treasurer—Evelyn Lemaire

Social Chairman-Violet Ciccone Publicity-Virginia Downey IRC

President-Genevieve Baughan Vice-President-Claire Beirne Secretary-Norma Dooley Treasurer-Albina Hull Social Chairman-Stella Tesavis Program Chairman-

CHARLES CARROLL CLUB President-Harold Merritt Vice-President-Thomas Lavery Secretary-Treasurer-Walter Huse Social Chairman-David Brooks NATURE CLUB President-Gladys Peterson

Vice-President-Marion McCarthy

Secretary-Helen Carty Treasurer-Frances Doyle Social Chairman-Marie O'Brien Publicity-Ruth Donnelly

HELICON STAFF Editor-Claire Beirne Seniors-Marylouise Fillo Rosalie Lavallee Juniors-Rita Kenney Jane Francis

Sophs-William McIntyre Edna Gryszowska

Frosh-Gretchen Emidy John May SENIOR CLASS

President-Leonora Clancy Vice-President-Claire Beirne Secretary—Norma Dooley Treasurer—Barbara Murray Social Chairman-

Maureen Maloney Student Council Evelyn Lemaire

Catherine Mitchell Mary McDole

Commencement Chairman-Barbara Murray Cap and Gown Day Chairman-

Audrey Livesey Class Day Chairman-

Claire Beirne Class Day Oration-

Maryjo Trayner Ivy Oration-Doris Tingley Class Historian-Joan Alexander Class Ode—Evelyn Lemaire Class Will—Catherine Mitchell

JUNIOR CLASS President-Eileen Tormey Vice-President-Nancy O'Neill Secretary-Ann Lankowicz Treasurer-Alice Hohler Social Chairman-Mary Smith

Student Council-Eleanor Crook

Marilyn O'Connor Gertrude Coutu

Ricoled Editor (1948)-

CLUB NEWS

Continued from Page 3 which to sprinkle his talk.

the I.R.C. banner goes to New with Genevieve Baughan and Claire Beirne CHOIR Church.

SIGMA RHO

Lenten season, the doors of Sigma utes? All you have to do is keep will be open wide as Sigma-ites calm and collected and do things greet all at their "Open House". one at a time. It's a cinch!

ALONG THE SPORTS TRAIL

With spring just around the corner, WAA is planning its future activities, among which is up to the .500 mark on February a bicycling hostel to be held approximately Aril 7 to 11, the place to be decided later. Durfee Tech of Fall River by the score 57-46. This victory gave Gene Cianfarani to be decided later.

W. A. A.

THE ANCHOR

Horseback riding will be under way soon, along with the formation of badminton, softball, and 50-42. tennis teams.

Frances Steere is manager of The the ping pong tournament. final game will be an exhibition game played on stage if arrangements can be completed.

The basketball playoffs between the Blue and Gold teams began March 12. Members of the Blue team are Edna Pomfret, Phyllis Maguire, Jean Fitzpatrick, Sara Kimonian, Virginia Bessette Gene Cianfarani, Evelyn Lemaire Audrey Livesey, with Mary Holton as Captain. Ellen Fay is Captain of the Gold team. Her teammates are Libby O'Neill, Jackie Swindells, Sandra Waldman, Mary McDole, Rosalie Lavallee, Albina Hull, Claire Beirne, and Gloria Isles. Frosh and seniors will compete for 20 points towards the ANCHOR in the near future.

A day trip to Dr. Ross' home on Prudence Island, May when she will hold open-house for R.I.C.E.'ers, is anticipated.

Date Confusion

"You'll be here in 15 minutes? Okay, Bye." So, he's coming in 15 minutes. WHAT? Only 15 minutes? And here I am in pin curls jeans, unshined shoes and simply covered with the dirty leaves I've been raking. "Jean, will you please turn on the shower for me and Sally, will you press my green pleated skirt? And Mary, would you get my white sweater out of the drawer and put it on the bed. Oh Molly, you are a lamb for shining those shoes." Whew, five minutes nearly gone and I'm nowhere near being ready. Brr, this shower is so cold I'll have to sit on the register for half an hour to thaw out! Now to find that pair of socks. Where did I put them? I'm certain I left them lying on Joan Doyle that chair. "Has anyone seen my white socks with the rainbow trim. Oh you did, Jackie? Did they fit alright?" Now what shall I do for a pair of socks? Why here is a pair of roommate's pretty all-Conferences are in the air, so colored ice-skating socks. It's quite cold tonight so I guess I'll wear Haven State Teachers College these. Five minutes to go, will I ever make it. "Hey, Sue, come help me with these hair pins, they don't seem to want to come out A group from the Choir will for me. Oh yes, you may comb When she is twenty-five she has present an Easter program April my hair for me if you like. No, I 1 at the Gloria Dei Lutheran can powder my nose by myself." There, I'm all ready and rarin' to go. Who says it's impossible to Soon after the close of the get ready for a date in 15 min-

R.I.C.E.'s basketball team brought its average for the season 18 when the O'Brienmen defeated the Ricemen a 7-7 record for the season. In a return game on March 7, Durfee upset R.I.C.E.

Tom Lavery scored 17 points against Durfee Tech on March 7 to boost his season's total to 262 points in 15 games, an average of 17.5 points per game. Jim Smith. who leads the team in foul shooting with 48 conversions, is second in scoring with 146 points.

With the exception of their surprising 62-61 victory over the powerful Fitchburg quintet on January 11, the Ricemen have had little success in the New England Teachers College Conference. Successive defeats by Keene and Fitchburg during February gave the Ricemen a record of one win and six losses in Conference play. The game which was played at Salem on December 5 has been protested, however, and an official ruling will have to be made in order to determine whether or not Salem will be given credit for the game.

Results of games played through March 7 are as follows: 46 R.I.C.E. 37 R. I. College of Pharmacy 50 Alumni 50 RICE 52 R.I.C.E. 58 Salem* 69 R.I.C.E. 59 Calvin Coolidge 32 R.I.C.E. 51 Keene 51 R.I.C.E. 68 Willimantic 51 R.I.C.E. 68 St. Raphael Alumni 44 RICE 65 Arnold 61 Fitchburg 62 R.I.C.E. 61 R.I.C.E. 52 Calvin Coolidge 32 R. I. College of 44 R.I.C.E. Pharmacv 44 R.I.C.E. 63 Keene 48 R.I.C.E. 46 Durfee Tech 42 RICE 50 Durfee Tech 762 R.I.C.E. 830 Opponents *Games under protest Won 7, Lost 8.

where you ALWAYS shop with confidence

Compliments of The College Shop

Ricoled Takes Shape Editor Auger Reports; Only 600 Dollars Short

"Pass the aspirin!" is rapidly becoming the slogan of the worried and harassed Ricoled staff, headed by Claire "Boss" Auger. With a blanket tax at least six hundred dollars short of the amount needed to publish the volume, the editors even now are planning to spend the next few years serving time as engraver's apprentices to pay the bills. And then, there is that demon, Time. The major issue, this year-the driving force -is to get the yearbook out On Time. Consequently, May Day elections have been pushed ahead a month, Class Day honors and elections have already been held, and photography editors Doris Lavallee and Marion McCarthy are dashing around posing and snapping pictures of events to come, so that there may be a record of the entire year.

As has happened every snapshots trickle in until the week of the deadline, and then the editors usually receive enough to make a page. And as happens every year, ads come in even more slowly. By this time, too, seniors have managed to choose their most flattering proofs and the 'glossies" (which are only three weeks overdue) should be finished soon. With big ideas and little money the staff has found out that the Ricoled must follow custom in its make-up. However, some innovations are promised, which will make it the best yearbook yet, of course. One can safely say that it will be an all-college Ricoled and one which will bring back memories of the many things which happened this year. That is, if the rest of the student body cooperates and crosses its fingers and toes!

Compliments of

AVON CINEMA

Thayer St. Near Tunnel YOU'RE SOAKED JUST $3.50 TO GOTOTHESOPH APRIL SHOWER APRIL 19

Ralph Stuart's Orch.

WILDGOOSE CLEANSERS 178 Mineral Spring Ave. PICK UP AND DELIVER Call Bl. 3134

M.A.A.