

Rhode Island College
Providence, Rhode Island

nineteen hundred and sixty-seven

“ . . . And the voice of Zima Junction spoke to me and this is what it said.

'I live quietly and crack nuts.

I gently steam with engines.

*But not without reflection on these times,
these modern times, my loving meditation.*

*Don't worry. Yours is no unique condition,
your type of search and conflict and construction,
don't worry if you have no answer ready
to the lasting question.*

Hold out, meditate, listen.

Explore. Explore. Travel the world over.

*Count happiness connatural to the mind
more than truth is, and yet
no happiness to exist without it.*

Walk with a cold pride

utterly ahead

wild attentive eyes

head flicked by the rain-wet

green needles of the pine,

eyelashes that shine

with tears and with thunders.

Love people.

Love entertains its own discrimination.

Have me in mind, I shall be watching.

You can return to me.

Now go.'

I went, and I am still going.”
