A LIFETIME OF LEARNING

INAUGURATION

1977

Saying that through a united effort we can "realize our visions," Dr. David Sweet was inaugurated as the sixth President of RIC on Wednesday, October 26, 1977.

Dr. Sweet, obviously deeply moved by the event, thanked his many friends and relatives for contributing to "the education of Dr. Sweet."

"There is a kind of excellence within the reach of every institution," Sweet said. He said that attaining excellence will require the best that each of us has to offer. The commitment of every individual associated with RIC is "absolutely essential" if the college is to achieve "it's peculiar excellence."

Over the years, RIC has "proven the value of teacher education for persons in all walks of life." "The obligation of the college is to teach each of the students . . . how to define excellence for herself or himself," President Sweet said.

Dr. Sweet's philosophy can be summed up as "to live is to learn, and to stop learning is to die."

In essence, our lifetime of learning is never ending; whether we be students, teachers or the members of the RIC community, excellence is within our reach.

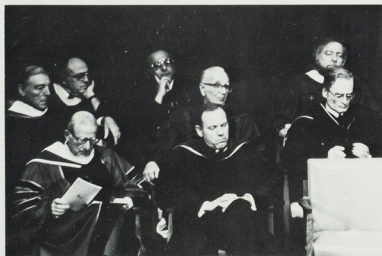

DAVID EMERY SWEET

Dr. Sweet was born on July 9, 1933 and earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1955 from Drury College, Missouri, and got his Master of Arts degree from Duke University in 1958. He received a Doctor of Philosophy Degree in Political Science from Duke also in 1967. After one year as a faculty member at Ohio University, he joined the Department of Political Science at Illinois State University.

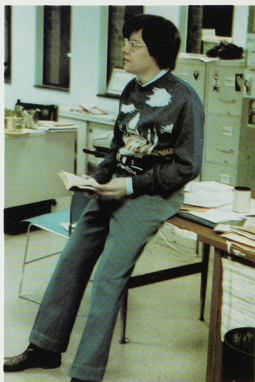

In 1969 Dr. Sweet was appointed Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs of the Minnesota State University System and in June of 1971, on the recommendation of Chancellor G. Theodore Mitau, Dr. Sweet was selected to be the founding president of Metropolitan State University.

A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

BY

MARC G. DUMAS

WELL, HERE IT IS! IT HAS BEEN MANY MONTHS AND HOURS, MANY MEETINGS, MANY MINOR CATASTROPHES AND YET, MANY HAPPY MEMORIES. NOW MY PROJECT IS COMPLETE.

As I have said, the road was long, the work tedious, but the reward has been worth all of that work. It's not often that a group of people has the opportunity to leave a mark on a College of this size. This year's EXODUS staff should be proud. Every effort was made to make this book as fine as possible. Michelangelo is credited with saying: "Trifles make perfection — and perfection is no trifle."

Therefore, special thanks are in order:

DEAN McCOOL, YEARBOOK ADVISOR and finally, my sincere gratitude goes out to my family and close friends for their continual support and encouragement. Without all of these people, the 1978 EXODUS could not have become a reality.

I HOPE YOU CAN FIND THAT THIS BOOK WILL PROVIDE YOU WITH A TIME TO REVIEW OUR PAST CONTEMPLATING ITS PLACE IN OUR PRESENT. FOR SOME, THE PAST YEAR HAS BEEN A TIME OF CHANGE. FOR ALL, IT HAS BEEN A TIME FILLED WITH PRECIOUS MEMORIES. NOW, AS TIME TAKES US FORWARD INTO THE UNKNOWN FUTURE, THIS BOOK WILL PROVIDE US WITH A VEHICLE TO TAKE A GLANCE BACK TO RECALL THE STORIES AND PLEASURES OF RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE.

I hope that those of us who worked so hard have accomplished our goal. Certainly this has been a challenge and experience I will never forget. I now look towards next year with a renewed spirit of dedication and purpose.

To each and every one of you — "Good-bye and Good Luck."

Sincerely,

Marc G. Dumas
